During the trolley tour you can hop-on and hop-off the trolleys to go exploring. The trolleys come around about every 15 to 20 minutes -- so you are able to hop back on. It was originally created in the s on 10 acres of land. In , the park was expanded and named for Georgia Governor John Forsyth. Forsyth also donated 20 acres of his land to increase the park to occupy 30 acres in the historic district of Savannah. Forsyth Park is located at the southern edge of the Historic District. Forsyth Park is a hub of social interaction. There are people playing recreation sports, sun bathing, enjoying picnics, reading or just relaxing. The most popular feature of Forsyth Park is the large fountain that sits at the north end of Forsyth Park. The fountain was built and added to Forsyth Park in . It resembles fountains in Paris and Peru. Forsyth Park also has a Fragrance Garden for the blind. The garden is open Monday through Friday from 9: There is also a playground for the children and a cafe where you can purchase drinks and snacks. John the Baptist is one of the most awe-inspiring buildings in all of historic Savannah Georgia. It is also one of the most popular tourist attractions in all of Savannah. The Cathedral of St. John the Baptist is a beautiful French Gothic cathedral, certainly one of the most amazing cathedrals in the south. Baldwin and Price designed the original building in the s and the Cathedral was built in . The building was almost destroyed by fire in and only the two spires survived the fire. The current structure was rebuilt in and still stands today. The beautiful and impressive stained glass windows were made in Austria and were installed around

The pass allows unlimited parking in city-owned lots, garages and metered spaces with a time limit of more than an hour it cannot be used in privately-owned lots or garages. If you are visiting over the weekend, however, free and discounted flat-rate parking is often available and you may not need to get a pass. See this page for more details. Alternatively, you can pay by the hour or day in any of the garages or lots, or on-street. Discount rates apply for evenings and weekends in most parking garages, and higher rates are usually charged during special events. Visitor Parking Passes are not valid in private garages or lots. In some cases a charge will apply. If you are staying fairly near a hour public parking garage, a Visitor Parking Pass or the full-day rate at the garage may be a cheaper option. Free parking is available outside of the parking-charge enforcement hours and on weekends in on-street spaces Sundays only north of Liberty Street and in most city lots. Advertisements On-street parking Available across the Historic District. Charges and stay times vary according to location. Can be cheaper than using a lot or garage, but will often be much harder to find a suitable space, especially during the peak tourist seasons and special events. If you are flying to Savannah and staying in a hotel situated either in or near to downtown, you will most likely not need a car for your vacation. Driving is rarely the best way to get around Savannah. Traffic is often heavy, parking can be difficult to find, and the one way system and frequent squares add to the challenges of navigating the Historic District, especially during rush hours and the peak tourist seasons. Taxis and sometimes the city bus services can also get you to the most popular sights such as Bonaventure Cemetery or Wormsloe Plantation outside of the Historic District if you decide to visit these. Even if you are planning to combine your visit to Savannah with a trip to Charleston or to Tybee Island, you can get by if needs be without your own vehicle. The Savannah to Charleston route is served by both Amtrak and Greyhound, and Tybee by taxi or airport shuttle. Shuttle services to Hilton Head, somewhat further away than Tybee, are also available.
