I found this site and read through the variations and they are quite similar. Thank you, your site helped me remember. We changed the prayer as follows: Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord, my soul to keep. Two angels standing near my bed, One at foot and one at head, To guide me safely through the night, and wake me with the morning light. Now I lay me down to sleep I pray the lord my soul to keep Let the angels watch over me through the night and keep me in their blessed sight. We like her version. I love you Jesus. Now I lay me down to sleep I pray the Lord my soul to keep Angels watch over me through the night and wake me on the morning light. Four posts around my bed, Four angels around my head, One to watch and one to pray And two to keep the Devil away. One to the foot and one to the head. One to sing and one to pray, and one to take my sins away. Contributed by Randall L. Before I lay me down to sleep, I give my soul to Christ to keep. My mother taught me this one when I was very young. Four corners around my bed Four angels around my head. He turned completely purple from one end to the other, was rigid arching his back and his eyes were rolling up. It was the most terrifying experience we have ever had. In August, 03 he suffered the only other severe episode like that one - the rest were pretty minor by comparison, but occurred daily in spite of the medicine. He had severe acid reflux and we battled it for a long time. He is now doing great and off of all medication. I grew up in the church and received Christ at 7. But what happened last year with Seth sparked a time of growth unlike none other in my entire life. Knowing God saved my son now realizing that He saves us all, every minute of every hour, one breath at a time really changed me. It also changed my nightly routine with our children. She and I pray for the other family members, our church friends and sometimes things like milk and cups, night-nights, etc. For both of them though, I always lay a hand on them and pray this: Dear Heavenly Father, I pray that you would bless Hannah incredibly and that at an early and appropriate age she would accept Jesus as her Lord and Savior; That she would spend her whole life pursuing You; That You would bless her with a long life full of wisdom, health and safety, and contentment; That even now you would prepare for her a husband that will love, honor, cherish and serve You and her; and that she would love, honor, cherish and serve You and her husband. Though there are obvious exceptions, I normally do this with her and Seth each night. I usually wait until he is asleep, however. I fight the urge to just reel it off without thinking about it, because sometimes I am tired and in a hurry. Now I lay me down to sleep I pray the Lord my soul to keep Guard me Jesus through the night And wake me with the morning light. Father in heaven hear my prayer Keep me in thy loving care Be my guide in all I do And bless all those who love me too. Matthew, Mark, Luke and John Bless this bed I sleep upon Four corners to my bed Four angels surround my head One to watch and one to pray And two to keep all harm away. Help us to do the things we should To be to others kind and good In all we do and all we say To grow more loving every day. Dear Father, hear and bless Thy beasts and singing birds And guard with tenderness Small things that have no words. We began this when our son was two and his new sister was born, explaining we were praying for her too, since she had no words. They are now 7 and 5 and we use this prayer, which is also a hymn. My parents raised me with this prayer. Father, we thank Thee for the night, And for the pleasant morning light, For rest and food and loving care, And all that makes the world so fair. Help us to do the things we should, To be to others kind and good, In all we do, in work and in play, To grow more loving everyday. May angels watch over my slumber and when, The morning is breaking, awake me. Bless with all thy tender care Little children everywhere. Every this night be at my side To light and guard to rule and guide. They have proven it over and over again in my life and the lives of my children. Lord, into thy hands I commend my spirit. From year Gentle Jesus hear my prayer. Keep in in your tender care. Be my guide in all I do, and Help me live my life to you Bless â€œ. From year 6 and on we learned one verse at time until they knew it all by heart. Be willing in each task I do. Help me to be good each day, and lead me in thy holy way. Be near me when I wake again, and Bless all of those I love. This is one of our favorites. May God support us all the day long till the shadows lengthen and the busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over and our work is done - then in mercy - may God give us a safe lodging and a holy rest and peace at the last. Jesus tender shepherd lead me bless thy little lamb tonight. Through the darkness be thou near me, keep me safe till morning light. All this day thy hand has led me, and I thank thee for thy care. Thou hast warmed me, clothed me, fed me. Listen to my evening prayer. Jesus, Tender Shepherd hear me Bless your little lamb tonight Through the darkness please be near me Keep me safe til morning light All my days your hand has led me And I thank you for your care You have clothed me, warmed and fed me Listen to my evening prayer. May my sins be all forgiven Bless the friends I love so well Take us all at last to heaven Happy there with you to dwell. Let my near and dear ones be Always near and dear to Thee Please take me and all I love To Thy heavenly home above Thou my best my heavenly friend Thou wilt love me to the end All my blessings come from Thee Oh how good you are to me. Now my evening praise I give Thou didst die that I might live All my blessings come from thee Oh how good thou art to me! When we got a little older we added the Guardian Angel prayer at the end. Now that I have boys of my own, we say the same bedtime prayer modified for them. Dear Jesus, this is your little girl. I am sorry if I was bad today, I will try to be better tomorrow. Good night, dear Jesus. Father in heaven, hear my prayer. Keep me in thy loving care. Be my guide in all I do. Bless all those who love me too. Contributed by Steven, a 13 year-old parishioner from St. Here is one I heard from a boy in seventh grade whom I taught and whose grandmother was German. It is one version of a common bedtime prayer in Germany. He said there was one more verse.

The first time I heard anybody "talk" to angels was when my partner casually asked them to find her a parking space. I thought she was bonkers. Away with the fairies. And they helped me calm a frantic horse, find a job, get to sleep one night, and even find a missing USB stick. Chapter 3 : Angel Blessing at Bedtime - Angels bless and angels keep Angels guard

The sleep state is the ideal time for such spiritual lessons to occur, writes Yvonne Seymour in her book "The Secret World of Guardian Angels." She notes we spend one-third of our lives in sleep and we are more open and receptive in sleep.

Newsletter Please explain Genesis 6: Is this talking about angels having sex with humans in order to produce giants? The first thing we need to confirm is that angels are not sexual beings. Jesus addressed this in Luke Neither can they die any more: We also see that we will be like the angels in this regard in the new earth because the earth will be filled with the redeemed: Whatever God has planned for us will be better than anything we know of on this earth or anything we can even imagine! Many have been confused about the identity of these "sons of God". This section of Scripture has puzzled and perplexed a great number of scholars and Bible students for centuries. It is true that the book of Job uses the phrase "sons of God" in connection with angels, but that is the only book in the whole Bible where this can be found. Take for instance these familiar verses: Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: Again in John 1: Paul also used this phrase the same way in Romans 8: Does the Bible support this idea? Yes it does; In Genesis In the Psalms, the wicked enemies of David were sometimes called "the sons of men" Psalm 4: Other times, this phrase was used for the human race in a general sense, but it was a title for the wicked in certain cases. Now here in Genesis 6, we find these two opposing groups: In Chapters 4 and 5 we have two groups as well: If we read Genesis and the story of how sin entered this world, we find that the sons of God are those who are faithful to God and His plan for salvation, from Adam to Abel and down to Seth. On the other hand, the sons and daughters of men are those who are the children of Cain. The judgment pronounced upon the earth was against "man" verses 3 and 5. God would not punish man because of something the angels had done. Apparently, they chose worldly pleasure over the Lord and this resulted in Noah being the only righteous person left on the face of the entire earth! What about these mighty men or giants found in Genesis 6: The Hebrew word used in this verse is "Nephilim" Remember that just shortly before the flood, Adam lived, as well as Enoch who was translated to heaven because he walked continually with God and Methuselah. They lived over years and some believe that these people were over 9 feet tall. Perhaps these growth spurts occurred because of the breeding that took place between these two formally isolated tribes. In heaven we will grow up to the height God had originally envisioned for each of us! But Exactly Who or What are Angels? Angels are plainly revealed in the Bible: The connection of the visible with the invisible world, with the ministration of the angels of God Hebrews 1: Before the creation of man, angels were in existence; for when the foundations of the earth were laid, "the morning stars angels sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy" Job: Angels are in nature superior to men, for the psalmist says that man was made "a little lower than the angels" Psalm 8: We are informed in the Bible as to the power and glory of these heavenly beings, as well as their connection with the government of God, and also of their relation to the work of our redemption: Bless the Lord, you His angels, who excel in strength, who do His word, heeding the voice of His word. Worthy is the Lamb who was slain To receive power and riches and wisdom, And strength and honor and glory and blessing! Satan who was once one of the highest angels before he sinned and was cast out of heaven, see Ezekiel Have You not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? They are called our "brothers" Revelation Praise God for we know the end of His Book, when sin will finally be put away and we will live forever with our God!

What are guidelines to tell if a dream about angels is real? Do angels ever appear in dreams? In the Bible angels sometimes appear to wide awake people, as when Gabriel appeared to Mary Luke 1: But other times, including the four times an angel came to Joseph Matthew 1: Do angels still come to people in dreams? Just as in Biblical times, angels come to people when they are dreaming. Perhaps God chooses this way because we are more relaxed and open to his presence when we are asleep. While most people never have such an angelic visitation, it is more common than most people think. I have talked to hundreds of people who have recounted experiences that I believe to be authentic. A dream about fairies may be delightful and compelling, but that does not mean fairies exist. There are many reasons a person may dream about angels. Some of these are simple wish fulfillment. Here is an instance where a dream about angels was real. Angels came to me one night in a dream. There were four angels all dressed in black. Even their wings were black because they were in mourning. These were not the glorious, beautiful angels I wanted to see, but I asked the one closest to me, "Why are you so sad? I had not seen a doctor for years. My family doctor had retired and had referred me to another. This second doctor moved his practice to another state. The third doctor was a woman doctor who eventually joined the army. The clinic told me there was a two-year waiting list and that no new patients were being taken. So I decided to find another doctor, but because I was not feeling sick, I kept putting off my search. However, the morning after my dream my husband called the Loma Linda Clinic. So Bill told her my dream. A minute later she was back on the line. God had taken care of the two-year waiting list. The doctor did a biopsy and a full battery of tests. When I returned for the results the doctor said, "You have cancer and must have surgery right away. You should be thankful for the warning the angels gave you. With the kind of cancer you have there are no symptoms until it is too late. Praise God, the surgeon was able to get it all. I have been faithful in my follow-up visits and the doctor assures me I am cancer-free. I am living proof that God still uses his angels to give messages today. I am busy spreading the message that angels are not just for Christmas. Thank God for these magnificent, mysterious messengers! To read the full story, click here. So, how can we know if a dream about an angel is a real angelic appearance? Here are some guidelines I have developed as a result of my study of the Bible, my postgraduate work in dreams at the Yale Divinity School, and my talks with people about their experiences. The result of the dream will draw attention to God more than the angel. The dreams usually leave a person with feelings of awe and wonder and that God is loving. This is true even when the angel appears to a person who is rebelling against God and is deep in sin. The angel may appear to judge and to scare a person straight. Is this dream sensible or illogical? We need to use common sense. While a dream or a vision may come from God and be a positive life-changing event, the dream may also come from images buried in our subconscious. God does not send his angels to tell us silly or terrible things. It is always wise to share your experience with a trusted member of your faith community. Sharing with another person helps us evaluate the authenticity of what may be an angelic encounter. Does this dream contradict what is taught in the Bible? God does not contradict himself. See my past column: Good Angels, Bad Angels. Does this encounter leave you more renewed and more resolved to serve God? If the encounter is genuine it will move you to love God more deeply and to live out your faith more consistently.

Chapter 5 : Angel Quotes, Sayings about Angels

Chorus: Shut Up & Sleep With Me Come On Why Don't You Sleep With Me Shut Up & Sleep With Me Come On Aha & Sleep With Me I Love Your Body But Not So Much I Like Your Mind In Fact You're Boring.

Stewart August No! I felt the importance to address this issue from a Biblical perspective, because many heresies have crept into our churches as a result of misinterpretations over Genesis 6: There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. I agree with the mighty Bible teacher, J. Vernon McGee on this matter, who states And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose [Gen. This matter of "the sons of God" and "the daughters of men" is something that has caused no end of discussion. There are a great many good men who take the position that "the sons of God" were angels. I personally cannot accept that at all. Most of my teachers taught that the sons of God were angels, and I recognize that a great many of the present-day expositors take that position. However, I cannot accept that view, because, if these were good angels, they would not commit this sin, and evil angels could never be designated as "sons of God. I do not know why it is assumed by so many that the offspring were giants. We will look at this more closely when we come to verse 4. And the Lord said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: We believe that Noah preached for years, and during that time the Spirit of God was striving with men. Peter makes it very clear that it was back in the days of Noah that the Spirit of God was striving with men in order that He might bring them to God—but they would not turn. By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison" 1 Pet. These spirits were in prison when Peter wrote, but they were preached to in the days of Noah. How do we know that? During the long-suffering of God in the days of Noah—during those years. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown [Gen. It says, "There were giants in the earth in those days," but it does not say they are the offspring of the sons of God and the daughters of men. It does say this about the offspring: The record here makes it very clear that the giants were in the earth before this took place, and it simply means that these offspring were outstanding individuals Then what do we have here in verse 4? As I see it, Genesis is a book of genealogies—it is a book of the families. The sons of God are the godly line who have come down from Adam through Seth, and the daughters of men belong to the line of Cain. What you have here now is an intermingling and intermarriage of these two lines, until finally the entire line is totally corrupted well, not totally; there is one exception. That is the picture that is presented to us here. I recognize, and I want to insist upon it, that many fine expositors take the opposite view that the sons of God are actually angels. If you accept that view, you will be in good company, but I am sure that most of you want to be right and will want to go along with me. Regardless of which view you take, I hope all of us will be friends, because this is merely a matter of interpretation. It does not have anything to do with whether or not you believe the Bible but concerns only the interpretation of the facts of Scripture. Vernon, Thru the Bible with J. Thomas Nelson Publishers , c I agree with Dr. I cannot accept the popular view that fallen angels i. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: This Scripture passage plainly states that men are men, animals are animals, fish are fish, birds are birds, and angels are angels. There is not one Scriptural reference which would even remotely lead us to believe that angels and humans ever had sex. Jesus plainly stated in Mark Carefully notice that Genesis 6: Clearly there would be a serious contradiction in the Scriptures here IF the sons of God were angels. The idea that angels had sexual relations with earthly women is preposterous. As one can imagine, such speculation in the Scriptures provides ample opportunity for the heathen world to exploit the Scriptures. Countless books, movies, documentaries, and false religions have exploited such misinterpretations of Genesis 6: Without a doubt, the primary claim of the Book of Enoch is that fallen angels had sex with human women and produced feet tall giants upon the earth. This teaching is ridiculous, unscriptural, and has no solid evidence to support it Biblically or scientifically. This is another good reason why the Book of Enoch should continue to be rejected. DeHaan , angels did have sex with earthly women, then why has it not occurred since Genesis 6: The Scriptures are not silent on this matter, as we have read in Mark Of course, this is not a Scriptural teaching. Angels cannot marry, nor be given in marriage. Surely God would have been very angry with a group of angels that defiled his creation, bringing it to ruin. In addition, the entire suggestion that God allowed angels, which would have possessed FULL knowledge of divine realities, to tempt mankind is against the plainest teachings of the Scriptures. Carefully notice Genesis 6: Clearly, even from reading the Bible at a childlike level, it is obvious that the "giants" were not the same people as the "mighty men which were of old, men of renown. DeHaan, on pages , he states Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? Judas is called devilâ€”not a devil. In the original it is: Diabolis is the devil and Satan. He does not say that Judas is a demon, but devil Judas then, will be the Antichrist. The spirit of the Antichrist when the Spirit of God, which now hindereth, will be taken away will enter once more into mankind and cause to be born another freak half man and half devil who will be the incarnation of the devil. I do not agree with Dr. DeHaan on this issue, although I have tremendous admiration for him as a Bible teacher, and certainly as a genuine man of God. I do not believe that Judas was a "freak half man and half devil. This is not possible, nor Scriptural. Neither will the Antichrist be without an earthly father. Jesus Christ is the only human being ever born, or that ever will be born, without an earthly father Isaiah 7: DeHaan attempts to use Revelation He states on page He is said to give life to the image of the beast Rev. The Beast will not give life to a human being, nor to a living organism; but rather, to a mere object made by men. I simply do not believe that this Scripture can rightfully be used to imply that the Devil can give human life. DeHaan is correct, then Satan will be allowed by God to create a human life. Satan will simply give "movement" to the image, but he will not be able to create actual life, which only Jesus Christ can do Acts Satan has been trying to imitate Christ in every way throughout history, but he has failed. Keep in mind that Jesus performed the works He did, as no other man ever did, to prove to mankind that He was God in the flesh But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause" John Only Jesus can create life, and heal amputees. Only Jesus Christ can give real and genuine life John In contrast, the "life" which the Beast gives in Revelation The "life" which the Beast gives to the image built by men in Revelation Even now, Homeland Security in the U. Remember, the Bible states that men will build this image. Certainly this will be some sort of electronic micro-implant, which can be easily scanned, as part of a cashless society. As frightening as this all may sound, the technology is here, and the monsters controlling the world are drooling over it. There are many such men in the world today, with no conscience, no morals, no concern for the poor, no regard for God, no loyalty to anyone except them self. There are millions of men alive today who could easily be the Antichrist, for their hearts are already completely possessed of the Devil. After centuries of "hiding" which is what "occult" means , Satan is inspiring his followers to come out of hiding, evidenced by the plethora of occult symbols we see today everywhere we look. The Church is fast asleep, false prophets are everywhere, and apostasy has set in like rigor mortis.
