As you can see from reading my website you already know I am making money playing some of my favorite games from home with the help of the internet. As a thank you for making my dream a reality I have partnered with an online video game retailer who is willing to teach you how to get started now and quit your current job. To read his guide Battlefield 4 Multiplayer Guides "From Newbie to Pro Battlefield 4 multiplayer is one the most complex and intense first person multiplayer games to date. It offers countless hours of online action and fun. But, it demands a wide range of skills from you. Luckily, skills are something you can learn and improve. This is where my guides, tips and tricks come in. Are you ready to become a well-respected player, known far and wide? Have you ever played Battlefield 3 multiplayer? If you are reading this than you still have an interest in working from home playing games. I know the feeling and would love to help. My friend has written a guide to get anyone started now, even if you have very little money to invest. To read his guide Some things are the same. Other things are either different or completely new. I discuss a whole bunch of them on this page. Here are some of the things I write more about: Why solo players struggle more in the Battlefield games than in other first person multiplayer shooters. Are you a saver? Do you try to keep your valuables to yourself in the real world? Why Charles Darwin is important to multiplayer gaming. Click here and learn which mistakes to avoid. Each class has specific specialties and unique qualities to them. I write a lot more about the classes, and how they can win matches for you, in other guides. Why run and gun players easily fail in the Battlefield games. What a Boom Sniper is. Click here to become best in class. If so, the multiplayer aspect of BF4 may seem like a big, scary monster. Large maps, a range of different vehicles, an enormous number of weapon combinations, and up to 64 players in each match make this game challenging even to the experienced player. But there are things you can do to ease your online debut. The elementary principles of success in all Battlefield multiplayer games. Which game mode you should start off with. Why running and gunning is more difficult in this game. How to learn the maps at top speed. How to become a wanted team player. And more! The guide is written with the beginner in mind. Click here to read this guide. The result is more victories and a higher level of respect from your fellow gamers. How to always be teamed up with good players. The tool that makes you a better team player. How each class contributes to better co-operation and thus more victories. Click here to open this guide. The guides are really good. And they can be decisive in how your online debut develops; into a failure that makes you cringe, or into something to brag about on Facebook. Click here to take a look at the guides. Wanna Live Longer and Respawn Less? Then Read This Guide Staying alive for more than a few minutes at a time in Battlefield 4 online is not an easy task. The countless number of skilled players operating makes it difficult to avoid frequent respawns. Fortunately for us, there are measures we can take. Battlefield 4 Game Guide & Walkthrough Welcome to a HUGE battlefield. This unofficial guide to Battlefield 4 is an all-you-need-to-know about the multiplayer mode, but also a complete walkthrough of the single player campaign.

Obtain 11 points in the Shanghai mission in the Campaign There are loads of multi-kill opportunities so you can also go for the Wrecker trophy while doing this. You can throw tons of grenades and score a lot of points during that section. Obtain 11 points in the South China Sea mission in the Campaign Just take advantage of the boat section when you are making your way to the Valkyrie and you should have no problem. Obtain 12 points in the Kunlun Mountains mission in the Campaign Also, use explosives when defending yourself from incoming helicopter enemies as it will greatly benefit you. Use a sniper rifle at the last section so you can take out enemies from a distance. Complete all Assignments in the Campaign 7. There are 3 different assignments for each mission: Bronze, Silver, and Gold. They are related to obtaining a certain amount of points in each level. There are also 3 related to the 3 different endings in the campaign. Multi-kills are the key for getting all of the assignments as they offer a large amount of points. For example, getting a multi-kill with 3 kills will award you points. Getting headshots and killstreaks can help you earn large amounts of points. You want to completely avoid making your squad engage targets as they only offer 50 points per squad kill. Achieving all of the assignments is very easy and you should have no problem. The one I had the most trouble with is Singapore as the mission requires several multi-kills and they are difficult to pull off. Obtain 15 points in the Tashgar mission in the Campaign Take advantage of the gadget boxes as you will be able to spam grenades. This should not be a problem. Obtain 6 points in the Suez mission in the Campaign Unlock all assignments and collectibles in the Campaign 6.

Unfortunately, as the vehicle sinks Sgt. Dunn has no hope of escape as he is pinned down hard in the wreckage. He gives you his gun and orders you to shoot out the window to save yourself and the others. The moment you do so, time flashes back to moments prior to the crash which you will play out the scenario leading to it. Run down the hallway and head for the safe house. Pac will catch you off guard and almost shoot you in the face. Dunn also comes in and spooks him. Check the crate for the weapons. Go the window and Irish will jump out the window across the street. Protect him from all hostiles by killing them from where he says they are coming from. Once all is clear, Irish will climb into the safehouse. Move ahead and when you see daylight, aim for the door and shoot whoever comes out of it. Drop down and run to the door but turn around and shoot the enemies coming from behind below where you used to be. Rush in when you hear the word "Clear" then drop down into a red painted room. Use an explosive weapon to blast through the wall. Dunn has you scan the area. Do so until you see a truck with orange traces that are coming from it. These are enemy soldiers that dropped down from it. Your new objective is to reach the factory roof. Run down the right side and flank them. Kill the remaining ones in the back and a copter will rise and this must be Firebird. She states there are multiple heat signatures ahead. Deal with all the enemies from afar. Press the indicated button to Engage and send the copter after the enemies. The next set of enemies lob grenades. Watch out for those. Stay back as far as possible and let Firebird take out most of the work when she is ready to be sent out and take cover and get rid of the rest of the enemies. You know when it is clear when Firebird confirms it and says push on. In the meantime, she will remind you if there are more enemies arriving and that is a lifesaver. Run into the pipe to end up in a building. When you get to the exit pipe, be on your toes. The enemies are now shooting RPGs that cause Firebird to fall back. Kill everybody on the ground then kill everyone on the catwalk above. They are still lobbing grenades at you so be on the move at all times. When it is all clear follow your squad into the factory. In the elevator, you get a message from Firebird that there is hostile air. Everyone ducks down and gets knocked out of the elevator onto the catwalk. Run down the catwalk like crazy and run up the stairs. Run onto the roof and get to the chopper. A driver comes in and the soldiers commandeer the vehicle. Follow the onscreen instruction on how to drive and head for the secondary extraction point. Follow the road wherever it takes you and the enemy copter will still harass you. Irish gives you a grenade launcher and you blast the helicopter to kingdom com but you also end up taking a plunge into the water thus bringing us back to the present. Everyone except Dunn swim to shore and Dunn dies a noble death. When he is done, follow him and Irish to a yellow ladder and go up. You will see a Chinese politician speaking on the big screen on a building. When you get to another ladder, go down and run across the right side of the fountain and go up the stairs leading to the hotel. Go to the right side of the building and the door is open here. Your new objective is to reach the VIPs. Follow the gang to the elevator and hit the button and go inside. Pac hands you a UMP. During the elevator ride, you and the gang end up on the wrong floor and open fire on the people inside before heading up another floor. Open the crate for weapons. Move forward and get ready to round the corner but stay low for now and wait for two of the enemies to go up the stairs then sneak up on the the initial enemy and stealth kill him then quietly head to the outside and up the stairs and flank the other two. Their comrades will come down the stairs inside. Deal with them as you fight your way up those stairs. There will be several people to kill so mark them as you go for engagement. Go up the stairs and the door is locked. Pac will attempt to disable the security system. You will see a copter outside. Go downstairs and get some claymore and prepare for another gun battle. Place Claymore near the stairs so you can blow up anybody who tries to charge in. Head back up the stairs and into the room. Go inside the elevator upstairs and once up there, you will hear an explosion. You initially think that the mission was a failure after rounding the corners and the VIPs got blown up but fortunately Kovic had switched rooms and the VIPs are alive. Hannah introduces herself and her husband whom is wounded. Kovic says to commandeer a copter on the roof. Head for the stairwell and you will be in a red area. Go up the stairs and quietly highlight all enemies then start blasting everyone as you try to secure the copter. You will be notified when it is all clear. Get inside the copter and the husband gets shot. Shoot all of the enemies that attack. Amidst the firefight, the copter had made a getaway. Move around the area killing any remaining enemies looming around after the initial firefight stopped. Go down the stairs in the red room and go into the elevator. Next objective is to reach the Waterfront. After exiting, Garrison says exit is still not possible with the copter outside and you must reach the ship in 30 minutes but you are not timed for this. He says the quickest way out is east. No choice here but to fight it out. Once you get on the outer fountain, more of the enemies will be lowered from the copter. You can kill most of them easily by launching a grenade where they land then kill the survivors. Run down the alley to the west and a tank will come out. Double back and cut a left into another alley and kill the enemies at the end of it. Keep pushing forward while avoiding the tanks blasts where you see open space. Eventually, you and the gang reach a couple who are hugging and ask for your help reaching the river. Follow the couple to their safehouse. Chen says there are tanks outside and you must find an anti-tank explosive. Head outside and run across the catwalk and go down the stairs. Grab whatever explosive you prefer and you have two options. The first option is dangerous as the tank will actually try to rolling over them. A good strategy is to place the mines close together in a zig zag pattern so the tank will not be able avoid being blown up at least once. It takes at least two explosives to destroy the tank. After it is destroyed, you have to deal with a second tank. Destroy that one and head to the boat. Get to the port and board the boat. A copter gets destroyed by an EMP blast and crashes in the water but luckily no one onboard the boat is hurt. The signal however is jammed though. After the convo is over, your objective is to find Irish. The place is a maze of sorts but the best way to find him is to run up to the guys chatting then turn left and open the door at the dead end to go outside.

Chapter 4 : Battlefield 4 Multiplayer Guides, Tips and Tricks

We know you're eager to hone your skills and jump online, but before you do, cut your teeth on the.

As you can see from reading my website you already know I am making money playing some of my favorite games from home with the help of the internet. As a thank you for making my dream a reality I have partnered with an online video game retailer who is willing to teach you how to get started now and quit your current job. To read his guide Battlefield 4 online is intense. The result of all this might be your character dying a whole lot. I can do something about those. Understand It One of the most important qualities for you to possess if you want to live longer in Battlefield 4 is game comprehension. This is a big concept. It contains quite a lot of material. Knowledge of the different game modes. Game Modes You should know how the different game modes work. Take a mode like Rush. One team is attacking and destroying the M-COM stations. Many will play the objective , with the possible exception of wannabe top shot snipers who are only looking for easy kills, or players that primarily play to show off their aviation skills. In it, most attackers will storm towards the M-COM stations. Most defenders will always circle the same stations. A lot of players will choose the same routes, time and time again. Recons will place themselves in the same areas, time and time again. Defenders of an M-COM station will take the same positions match after match. There will of course be variations. But a lot of things repeat themselves in Battlefield online. Good map knowledge includes, among other things, this: Vehicle Spawns Some vehicles will show up in different places, at different times, during a match. Learn where these places are. Routes Knowing as many different routes on a map as possible allows you to plan your movements better. High Traffic Routes Some routes are used more often than others – by both friendlies and hostiles. The chance of meeting strong opposition is bigger here. Learn to recognize these routes. Shortcuts There are a lot of shortcuts in the Battlefield maps. Detours Detours are often, well, longer routes to a target. But the chance of you surprising your opponents with a flanking attack or an attack from behind is much bigger. And so are your chances of survival. Sniper Spots Many recon players are predictable. They quickly identify their favorite positions. And they use them. Hideouts A lot of times, the smartest thing you can do is hide. As such, you should know as many good hideouts as possible. These can be anything from bushes to buildings. Situational Awareness Predicting what your opponents are going to do requires neither a clairvoyant nor an astrologist. But it does require you to have situational awareness. You use what you see and hear in the game to predict what the other players will do next. And even more hostiles will die at your hands. Situational awareness is a skill that needs to be learnt. And it develops over time. Here are some tips on how to reinforce it: Battlefield 4 online contains a range of audible clues. Footsteps, the sound of incoming grenades, engines, shots, and so on, are often easy to hear. Not only will you hear the sound. When you or a teammate spots enemies, these are marked on your HUD, and on the mini map. When something happens to an objective – like the enemy being about to capture it – its icon will warn you. Walk more than you run. There are several reasons for me saying this: And before you had the time to raise your own weapon, your character was dying on the ground. When you walk more, these situations will occur less often. But those who promote this argument forget to mention a couple of important things: But make sure you get to safety before doing so. Easy Target Here – Reload in Progress! Avoid Open Areas The Battlefield 4 maps comprise of a lot of open areas. Avoid them like the plague. Letting your character run around in the middle of street or in the wide open? Move From Cover to Cover Battlefield 4 online has a wealth of cover to choose from. Some is permanent, some temporary. Scan the area and find the next cover. Repeat this procedure like the never-ending story. Planning to move over a bigger part of a map? Pick a route that gives you as much cover as possible between you and the hostiles. Practice Piloting in the Test Range Helicopters and jet fighters are hard to master to start with. Both the flying itself and weapon handling require skills. He might be able to hit your character with two or three bullets. If you are reading this than you still have an interest in working from home playing games. I know the feeling and would love to help. My friend has written a guide to get anyone started now, even if you have very little money to invest. Your opponent may only need to hit with an additional one or two bullets to make his kill. You, on the other hand, will have to get in at least four or five hits. You can try returning fire. You can turn around and try to run. If you succeed, try finding an alternate route and attack the hostile from his side or back. You can try escaping, and not bother with the hostile at all. My experience is that the chance of survival is best with options 2 and 3. The game is merciless against players that have a bad aim. Where you aim makes a difference, too. You wanna be a Battlefield 4 Top Shot? You should be able to control the recoil and the muzzle climb. You need to master correct aim point placement in relation to target distance. And how will I learn these things? Expect that one or more opponents are waiting for you. Here are some things to keep in mind: Use a detour, just to surprise the welcome committee. Try getting an overview of the area surrounding the target first. Take out any bad guys before moving towards the target. Smoke Saves Lives Are you about to attack an objective? Equip your soldier with smoke grenades. A smokescreen might be just the thing you need to capture a flag or destroy an M-COM station, and still live to tell the tale. ZigZag Saves Lives Are you getting shot at? Zigzagging can save your life. Why does it work? And zigzagging makes this considerably more difficult for them. Spotting Saves Lives Try spotting your target before shooting, if you can. Should you miss, you may still get a new chance if your target makes a run for it. This way you might be tipped off if the target attempts a flanking attack or an attack from behind.

For my other guides: Fueled by the next-generation power and fidelity of Frostbite" 3 Battlefield 4 provides a visceral dramatic experience unlike any other. Only in Battlefield can you demolish the buildings shielding your enemy. Only in Battlefield will you lead an assault from the back of a gun boat. Battlefield grants you the freedom to do more and be more while playing to your strengths and carving your own path to victory. There is no comparison. Immerse yourself in the glorious chaos of all-out war found only in Battlefield. Unfortunately, as the vehicle sinks Sgt. Dunn has no hope of escape as he is pinned down hard in the wreckage. He gives you his gun and orders you to shoot out the window to save yourself and the others. The moment you do so, time flashes back to moments prior to the crash which you will play out the scenario leading to it. Run down the hallway and head for the safe house. Pac will catch you off guard and almost shoot you in the face. Dunn also comes in and spooks him. Check the crate for the weapons. Go the window and Irish will jump out the window across the street. Protect him from all hostiles by killing them from where he says they are coming from. Once all is clear, Irish will climb into the safehouse. Move ahead and when you see daylight, aim for the door and shoot whoever comes out of it. Drop down and run to the door but turn around and shoot the enemies coming from behind below where you used to be. Rush in when you hear the word "Clear" then drop down into a red painted room. Use an explosive weapon to blast through the wall. Dunn has you scan the area. Do so until you see a truck with orange traces that are coming from it. These are enemy soldiers that dropped down from it. Your new objective is to reach the factory roof. Run down the right side and flank them. Kill the remaining ones in the back and a copter will rise and this must be Firebird. She states there are multiple heat signatures ahead. Deal with all the enemies from afar. Press the indicated button to Engage and send the copter after the enemies. The next set of enemies lob grenades. Watch out for those. Stay back as far as possible and let Firebird take out most of the work when she is ready to be sent out and take cover and get rid of the rest of the enemies. You know when it is clear when Firebird confirms it and says push on. In the meantime, she will remind you if there are more enemies arriving and that is a lifesaver. Run into the pipe to end up in a building. When you get to the exit pipe, be on your toes. The enemies are now shooting RPGs that cause Firebird to fall back. Kill everybody on the ground then kill everyone on the catwalk above. They are still lobbing grenades at you so be on the move at all times. When it is all clear follow your squad into the factory. In the elevator, you get a message from Firebird that there is hostile air. Everyone ducks down and gets knocked out of the elevator onto the catwalk. Run down the catwalk like crazy and run up the stairs. Run onto the roof and get to the chopper. A driver comes in and the soldiers commandeer the vehicle. Follow the onscreen instruction on how to drive and head for the secondary extraction point. Follow the road wherever it takes you and the enemy copter will still harass you. Irish gives you a grenade launcher and you blast the helicopter to kingdom com but you also end up taking a plunge into the water thus bringing us back to the present. Everyone except Dunn swim to shore and Dunn dies a noble death. When he is done, follow him and Irish to a yellow ladder and go up. You will see a Chinese politician speaking on the big screen on a building. When you get to another ladder, go down and run across the right side of the fountain and go up the stairs leading to the hotel. Go to the right side of the building and the door is open here. Your new objective is to reach the VIPs. Follow the gang to the elevator and hit the button and go inside. Pac hands you a UMP During the elevator ride, you and the gang end up on the wrong floor and open fire on the people inside before heading up another floor. Open the crate for weapons. Move forward and get ready to round the corner but stay low for now and wait for two of the enemies to go up the stairs then sneak up on the the initial enemy and stealth kill him then quietly head to the outside and up the stairs and flank the other two. Their comrades will come down the stairs inside. Deal with them as you fight your way up those stairs. There will be several people to kill so mark them as you go for engagement. Go up the stairs and the door is locked. Pac will attempt to disable the security system. You will see a copter outside. Go downstairs and get some claymore and prepare for another gun battle. Place Claymore near the stairs so you can blow up anybody who tries to charge in. Head back up the stairs and into the room. Go inside the elevator upstairs and once up there, you will hear an explosion. You initially think that the mission was a failure after rounding the corners and the VIPs got blown up but fortunately Kovic had switched rooms and the VIPs are alive. Hannah introduces herself and her husband whom is wounded. Kovic says to commandeer a copter on the roof. Head for the stairwell and you will be in a red area. Go up the stairs and quietly highlight all enemies then start blasting everyone as you try to secure the copter. You will be notified when it is all clear. Get inside the copter and the husband gets shot. Shoot all of the enemies that attack. Amidst the firefight, the copter had made a getaway. Move around the area killing any remaining enemies looming around after the initial firefight stopped. Go down the stairs in the red room and go into the elevator. Next objective is to reach the Waterfront. After exiting, Garrison says exit is still not possible with the copter outside and you must reach the ship in 30 minutes but you are not timed for this. He says the quickest way out is east. No choice here but to fight it out. Once you get on the outer fountain, more of the enemies will be lowered from the copter. You can kill most of them easily by launching a grenade where they land then kill the survivors. Run down the alley to the west and a tank will come out. Double back and cut a left into another alley and kill the enemies at the end of it. Keep pushing forward while avoiding the tanks blasts where you see open space. Eventually, you and the gang reach a couple who are hugging and ask for your help reaching the river. Follow the couple to their safehouse. Chen says there are tanks outside and you must find an anti-tank explosive. Head outside and run across the catwalk and go down the stairs. Grab whatever explosive you prefer and you have two options. The first option is dangerous as the tank will actually try to rolling over them. A good strategy is to place the mines close together in a zig zag pattern so the tank will not be able avoid being blown up at least once.

Number of points required for the gold badge: Number of hidden The dog tags: Number of hidden weapons: Watch a short introductory cutscene. You are in the car with Irish and Hannah. After a while, you will notice units of the Russian army and you will stop. You will be spotted by the hidden Marine unit, who will take you along to their hideout. From there, you will be able to move on. Reach Old Town Run after Irish and you should notice an ammo box after a while. Take the appropriate equipment and continue the mission. Irish will notice that there are large numbers of the enemy units and patrolling tanks in the area. In the first place, you will have to destroy the tank but, for the sake of safety, use the tactical visor first, to mark the rest of the units in this location. Next, approach the gadget box, which is marked on the minimap. Take C4 explosives and follow the tank. Just like in the "Shanghai" mission, it is immensely important that you stay out of the range of vision of the tank, and behind it instead. Run up to the tank, attach two C4 charges, run away and explode the charges once you are at a safe distance. The explosion will alarm the enemy units and the battle will ensue. Hide behind a cover and fire at the approaching enemies. Some of them are in the buildings or on the rooftops so, you need to be careful. Try to push Northwards slowly as well [N on the minimap]. Just a bit more After you have killed all of the enemies, you should have already reached the Northern gate. You will find a tank here - get into the vehicle and cut through the gate. You can use the onboard guns to kill the enemies. Follow the marker on the minimap until you get to a place a tunnel entrance , where you will have to get out of the tank. Do that and walk through the door. It is time for another fight with the Russian units. Approach the nearby ammo box and replenish your ammo. In this stage, it is best to take a position near one of the buildings, at least at the beginning. Dash into the nearby building and kill the enemies there. Then, approach the window and use the tactical visor to mark all of the enemies. You should also notice another tank here. Do not worry, you still have the C4 charges, which you took from the box. As for now, you can ignore the tank because it is at a safe distance and is not focused on you yet. While standing in the window, kill all of the enemies that you can reach from here. Once the area is clear and free of the enemy units, you can deal with the tank. Select the C4 charge and run towards the tank, while trying not to attract its attention. Plant two C4 charges and explode them once you are at a safe distance. You will go no farther, mate. After you have destroyed the tank, finish off the rest of the enemies and follow Irish and Hannah. You will reach a Marines camp, where you will talk to Major Greenland. She will equip you with a car so, enter it along with the others. Destroy the Dam After a nap in the car, it is time to go ahead. Run along the tunnel and approach the ammo box. As your primary weapon, select the assault rifle, and the marksman, or sniper rifle as your secondary weapon. Follow Irish and, after a while, you will bump into a patrol of Russian soldiers. This will alarm the soldiers in the camp located beneath. Once the area below is relatively clear, go there. Kill the remainder of the enemies. After a moment, there should appear a helicopter. The best idea is to hide in an opened container and stick out just for a moment, to take a shot. Repeat until you succeed. The chopper will then crash land and you will be able to go ahead. Climb up the stairs onto the white platform and jump onto the colorful containers. Now, go ahead kill the enemies along your way. Turn your attention to the enemies at the heavy machine guns. You will have to deal with them in the first place, because the guns deal a lot of damage. A dangerous sort After a while, you will reach an elevator - walk inside and press the switch to move. Once you are downstairs, approach the ammo box and replenish your ammo. The most useful weapon at this point will be the marksman rifle instead of the sniper rifle. Turn left and start shooting at the enemies approaching down the corridor. Cover Hannah, who is planting the first C4 charge. Run ahead and eliminate the successive soldiers. A moment later, you will have to plant another charge. Search for the spot marked with the white dot and press [E]. Keep running ahead, until you end up on a scaffolding. Now, you should be using the marksman rifle for the whole time, because the enemies will be appearing at quite a distance, and this will make aiming easier for you. After a while, Irish will plant the last charge so, run along the scaffolding and kill the Russian soldiers along the way.

At some point, you will have to jump over to the other side of the scaffolding so, aim at the ladder, otherwise you will fall and you will have to start over from the checkpoint. Once you are almost at the top, it will turn out that further passage is cut off. You will be attacked by another wave of soldiers. You have no other choice but detonate the charges. Select the C4 detonator and press the [LMB], to see a spectacular cutscene. After you get out of water, you will notice a helicopter, a friendly one this time around. Run ahead towards the building and take the stairs to reach the rooftop. Major Greenland will offer you transport to the place where your last mission takes place.
