

Chapter 1 : Blessing In Disguise Sermon by Andrew Drummond, Romans - www.nxgvision.com

Blessings in Disguise is a meaningful brand of jewelry blending travel, traditions, icons, symbols, and timeless design into handcrafted pieces.

We provide a range of life enhancing experiences helping to improve the quality of life for children and young people with life limiting illnesses and disabilities. BID considers a family to consist of dependent children and those who care for them. Carers can be parents, grandparents, guardians and others with caring responsibilities. Decisions on the funding of a piece of equipment or activity are dependent on funds being available at the time. We operate on a first come first served basis when we are reviewing the applications. Eligible criteria must be met in order for equipment to be granted. All applications must be counter signed and relevant details completed by a medical professional, a referring agent, organisation or school. What do we fund? Equipment Grants are usually a one off. If an applicant has had funding for a piece of equipment in the last 3 years from BID or elsewhere, we will ask for brief details. However the trustees would consider an application at their discretion. Blessings can provide funding for a range of essential life enhancing equipment, such as special needs wheelchairs prams, walkers, medical equipment, sensory equipment, communication aid etc. Through personal experience, we know that it can often be difficult on other family members, who perhaps unfortunately miss out, but we will endeavour to encourage them to achieve positive changes. Public bodies, other charities or organisations that do not operate within our objectives set out in our articles of association. Organisations with political associations or interests. Funerals; white goods; building works; driving lessons; non-essential or non-specific equipment that is not for the sole use for the benefit of a child or young person with a life limiting illness or disability. How to Apply If you meet all the criteria above and would like to request a grant application form, please contact us. Application forms should be filled out fully and submitted electronically or posted to the postal address on the application form along with your most recent proof of disability benefits from the DWP for the child named on the application form, send to blessingsindisguisecharity@gmail.com. The equipment is for the sole use of the child named on the application form for which it was intended. Only one application per child or young person will be considered in any three year period.

God In The Hardships Summary: Often it is difficult for us to see too far past our circumstances. In doing so we forget that God is always up to something good, if we will just put our faith in Him. As she was about to sit down for a nice lunch with her sisters she got a call to rush a family member to the hospital. She then had to wait in the hospital waiting for the better part of the day. Like a continual worship service. Although this is a well known phrase, what does it really mean to you? Of course we want to pray for blessings in our lives, but how do we react when God does things to produce in us the things that will bless us in the future. What happens when we get blessings in disguise? God chooses to bless us all the time, although sometimes the only way to receive some of His blessings we need to have crisis first. Endurance, Character and Confidence It is one thing to claim to be a believer, but it is entirely different to prove it. Character is easily one of the most valuable things that we have as Christians. If you have told others that you are a Christian then it is something that they are looking at for sure! Something so arduously developed must have great value and someone with good character is truly blessed. Somewhere along the way, I stopped demanding that God fix the problems in my life and started to be thankful for his presence as I endured them. You will never develop muscles that you never use. When you have a thorough workout you feel pain in places you never knew existed the next day. The reason is because you have worked muscles you never worked before. The same goes for character and spiritual development. In these times we are forced into relying on Him. Disguised as a trial God is trying to bless your life with endurance, character and confidence which are good and lasting things. Something better Many times the things that most want in life are snatched from us. Sometimes the things we think are most important get frustrated and fall apart. The other blessing that comes from this sort of experience is that God needs for us to see things totally ripped apart in order for Him to get our attention and give us what He knows is better. This is tough, I know because I have experienced these sorts of things in life. There is a familiar passage that I want to direct your attention to at this point. He is the one who has the key of David. He opens doors, and no one can shut them; he shuts doors, and no one can open them. God is never interested in destroying us; He loves us. Although it is very difficult for us to recognize or even think about at the time, God does things for our good. Easy to say I know, but the truth is there. While Job was going through his illness; his requests to die or be healed were rejected by the Lord. After testing and stretching Job God blessed His life with much more than what he had before Job Do you think Job was looking back wishing he could go back, trade it in for what he had before? No, and when you begin to see how God changes your trials into blessings you will thank Him for what has happened in your life. Regardless of what you think, God has something better in store for you.
