This history of the church was written by Luke who was the writer of the gospel of Luke. It continues where the gospel of Luke ended. It includes the ascension of Jesus, the initial outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and the three missionary journeys of Paul. Many of the epistles were written to churches that were founded in the book of Acts. What is the former written work referred to? Have you obeyed the two basic commands that Jesus gave in this chapter? Chapter 2 Acts 2: What was the day of Pentecost? What phrase shows the unity of purpose of the disciples? What three impressive phenomena occurred when the Holy Ghost was first given? What reactions did the observers have? From where did the observers come? What time of day did the outpouring occur? What prophecy did the outpouring of the Holy Ghost fulfill? And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. What are six things that Peter said about Jesus in his message? What prophecy did Peter give regarding the resurrection? Who is the promise of the Holy Ghost for? How many were added to the church after Peter spoke? What four things did these new converts continue to do? What were some attitudes of the early church? How does the interaction between the audience and Peter compare to the interaction between the audience and the speaker in the church services you attend? In what state were the listeners when Peter brought the Acts 2: How do your attitudes compare to the attitudes of the early church? Answers for the Acts study questions.

Chapter 3 : The Book Of Acts Bible Study Guide - Chapter 2 - Part 1 - The Holy Ghost

Welcome to this Bible study series on "Exploring the Bible," which provides an overview of the major sections of the Bible. In this lesson we'll look at the book of Acts (also known as the Acts of the Apostles), a short history of the founding and spread of the New Testament Church from the time of Christ's resurrection to Paul's imprisonment.

Do They Contradict Each Other? An Overview of Acts Luke continues his accurate and exciting history, begun in the Gospel of Luke, with this book about the first 30 years or so of the New Testament Church. We can learn much from the zeal, mission and examples of the first Christians, fueled by the power of the Holy Spirit. How did Jesus Christ begin to fulfill His promises through the Church? And you are witnesses of these things. Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high. Jerusalem and Judea received the message in Acts 1: Judea and Samaria are highlighted in 6: The message begins going to the ends of the earth in 9: Did the disciples have absolute proof of the resurrection? The four Gospels, Acts and passages such as 1 Corinthians The zeal and fearlessness of the formerly fearful disciples also testify to their conviction that Jesus Christ was killed but was raised from the dead and was now backing up their efforts with power. What message did two angels give the disciples when Christ was taken up to heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we do? This annual festival marked the beginning of the New Testament Church and the giving of the Holy Spirit. Everything in the book of Acts radiates from this pivotal event. What did Stephen say that led to his martyrdom? Who consented to his death? And they killed those who foretold the coming of the Just One, of whom you now have become the betrayers and murderers." [Stephen] said, "Look! I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God! And the witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul. Instead of being cut to the heart and repenting, as the crowd did on Pentecost, this group chose the more natural response of anger. Instead of believing and accepting their own guilt, they accused Stephen of blasphemy. This was the start of a great persecution that Saul was a part of. But eventually this Saul was converted and became known to us as the apostle Paul see the introduction of this lesson. How did Peter come to understand that God was now calling gentiles? So naturally Jewish Christians thought that circumcision would be required for gentiles to convert to Christianity as well. But God showed Peter that He was also calling uncircumcised gentiles. To convince Peter, God first gave him a vision. Why was the Jerusalem conference called? During this conference, Peter repeated what God had shown him Acts What was decided at the Jerusalem conference? Here are excerpts of the explanation of this passage from our free booklet The New Covenant: By this rationale, should we conclude that Christians are now free to do these evil things? Specifically, each was directly associated with the pagan forms of worship common in the areas from which God was calling gentiles into the Church. Each also violated specific biblical commands Exodus The purpose for this somewhat puzzling concluding statement now becomes clear: For the complete explanation of this passage, see " The Jerusalem Conference of Acts He preached to both Jews and gentiles on the Sabbath. There is no biblical evidence that the day of worship was changed see " Was the Sabbath Changed in the New Testament? What message did the apostle Paul continue to preach after ending up imprisoned in Rome? The Bible teaches one unified gospel—the message of the Kingdom of God Mark 1: It includes the message of grace and of salvation, which make it possible for us to enter that Kingdom Acts It was this good news that the Church of God spread throughout the Roman world in the first century, and it is the same wonderful message that the Church of God teaches today. Apply Now Read Acts The Bereans, like all the Jews, did not understand that their Scriptures prophesied two comings of the Messiah: Today, many do not fully understand the second. The Bereans were willing to check these things out in the Bible. Please take time to read The Gospel of the Kingdom , which brings together relevant passages from both the Old and New Testaments about this vital subject. This is the good news that Jesus Christ and all the apostles, including Paul, preached. Questions about this lesson? Feedback about this lesson?
