The company specializes in providing rich, digital copies of textbooks and online resources to help students and faculty. As an online retailer of textbooks, the company offers a large selection of textbooks. Instructors can request personalized services to coincide with their classroom learning objectives, and the course-driven digital solutions help students to learn more and study better. The website goes beyond typical textbook-delivery services by providing online homework that students can complete and submit to their instructors. It also offers a selection of eBooks, rentals and study tools to help students excel. The study tools are interactive and designed to complement any textbooks that are assigned to the course. This helps students learn more effectively and concentrate on learning the right material to do well in courses. When you access the website, you can find your required texts in a few different ways. The easiest and most effective way to locate your textbooks is by entering the ISBN number for your required text. Another option for finding books is to search by your school. Once you select your school, a drop-down list appears with all of the courses available for that school. Select any of the textbooks listed and add the required materials to your card. Returns are made easy since the company gives you a prepaid shipping label to return the book. With CengageBrain, there is no more need for waiting in lines or dealing with uncertain textbook return policies. This link takes you to your dashboard where you can see a list of your textbooks that are available for viewing. Digital products are typically made available to you within a few minutes. The website is designed for students in high school and college. Students must be at least 13 years old to access the site, so it does not offer textbooks for students under the age of 13. If you happen to be younger than 13 years old, you can contact customer service to discover options for accessing textbooks online. The company does not require that you show proof of enrollment to access textbooks. The company also makes it possible for you to use college financial aid to pay for your books. Free resources are available for certain types of content. Most of the free content comes with digital textbooks, and it can come in the form of companion web sites or in some cases, there are free chapters available to preview the materials before you make a purchase. If there are any free materials available, they will show up in this section. While the website is primarily focused on students, the company also has several resources available for teachers. Instructors who want to purchase textbooks must create a student account if they want to purchase textbooks. The instructor registration comes with special permissions to add course content and dictate the materials required for a specific course. A mobile version of the site exists to help you easily read content online and study virtually anywhere.
