In the final sixth round game, Fierce Friends faced the Boccia Warriors and recorded their first win of the tournament by a margin. Early competition in BC3 Individual Pool play. In the seventh and final round of Pairs play Rolling Thunder faced USA Pairs and was the last team to have a shot at breaking their undefeated streak. The Thunder tested the USA squad in a close game, but lost by the score of Josh Kain and Chris Beck €” 7. Lakeshore continued their strong play and won easily over the Thunderbolts, The final exhibition game between the BC4 Team Spectrum and the Vanquishers was the closest match of the series. Spectrum edged out the Vanquishers to sweep the four game exhibition series. The Team competition resulted in a 3-way tie with three teams Kansas Tornados, Lakeshore and Team USA all finishing with a record of 2 wins and 1 loss. The rules require point differential the difference between points for and points against to be used in a tie breaker. USA Pairs went undefeated in their six games, outscoring their opponents to win the National Pairs Championships. The lunch break on Day 2 marked the transition from Pairs and Team play to Individual play. BlazeSports staff greatly appreciated the chance to have some good old home cooking, this far from Atlanta. Individual play is divided into division by class: Based on the number of players in each class, the tournament is set up in a number of pools. The first round of play is within each pool. All players in a pool play each other once with points awarded for each win. The top two players within each pool advance to the playoff rounds. Individual pool play will conclude on Saturday with all playoff rounds being held on Sunday. After a rough night of midwestern thunder storms and a power outage at the host hotel, teams were greeted to an outstanding facility at York High School in Elmhurst, IL. The Thunderbolts overwhelmed the rookies The Fierce Friends took an early lead in the first end, but were scoreless for the remaining three ends and lost to the Rolling Thunder This match up was the closest contest of the morning with only one point scored in each of six ends. Team USA just edged out the Tornados, The Tornados ran away with it and won The Thunder were forced to score two points in the final end to pull out the win. Round on went to Team Spectrum Round two and three was more of the same with Team Spectrum
