Leave a response On my previous post, I gave some ideas to have something to draw , and one of my suggestions was to draw animals. How to draw cartoon animals Drawing cartoon animals goes in the same line as how to draw cute animals, and there are many famous cartoon animals to choose from. But before we start, I want to make this clear: It would take me a lifetime and there are some pretty good tutorials out there. Guidelines on how to draw animals step by step: Start by outlining the body. Use basic figures like circles and ovals. Once you get the basic structure, go onto the details. If you need some, go ahead and search any picture on Google. Try to replicate what you see. Check more tutorials and guides. There are some good ones out there. Practice, practice, practice! Remember: The first step is to draw a circle that will represent the head. Then, draw a cross that identifies where the eyes and nose will go. This results in a circle with 4 sections. Draw one oval on each of the bottom sections. These are going to represent the bottom of the head. Finish up with the ears. It will represent the center of the body. Because Bugs is kind of a thin fellow, try and make the shapes look slim. Two ovals for each leg should do it. You can experiment giving them the direction you want. At the end of each leg, draw a rounder oval that will represent each foot. But do try to make it look proportionate. Step 4 " The arms Follow the same instructions as in the previous step: Two small ovals for each arm, and finish with a third oval for the hands. Step 5 " Toes and fingers You are almost done with the structure of the drawing. Draw circles for the toes and ovals for the fingers. Step 7 " Nose, Tooth and Whiskers Now, this is where the fun begins. Notice how we are now drawing with more darkly lines. Remember the vertical line you draw in the head? Draw a curvy w-shape for the top of the mouth. The big tooth and whiskers should be no problem for a talented artist such as yourself. Step 8 " Mouth and Lower Head details Proceed to draw the mouth. If you draw it open, draw the tongue. Step 9 " Eyes and Upper Head His head is not round, so use the circle only as your guide and draw his real head inside it. Also draw the details of the ears and the hair between them. Step 10 " Outline the Body! That includes the arms and legs. Step 11 " Detail the Basketball and Tail Detail the tail. And feel free to draw something else besides a carrot or basketball. Why not a football maybe? Step 13 " Erase the guidelines Erase the guidelines to give a more professional look to your work. Step 14 " Color the bunny Bugs Bunny Now, to make him really pop out of the picture, give him some color: How to draw realistic animals The Art of Animal Drawing The idea on drawing realistic animals follows the same guidelines. This book teaches how to draw animals using the same structure I gave you: The Art of Animal Drawing: Construction, Action Analysis, Caricature.
