The original authority figure in our lives and also the man that stood tall from day one. You see, there is no shortage of songs about fathers as musicians, just like everyone else, have many feelings about their fathers. Plenty of these songs have a good feeling and some may have conflicted. But all these songs exists to simply remind everybody that dads are great. Of course, not all us are so lucky to have one with us. It is true that majority of fathers show their love differently than mothers. Mothers tend to share joy, excitement and live through hugs and kisses while this song depicts how fathers show love and care for their sons. Despite being unable to find the right words to connect with their sons, good fathers look out for them all the time. Tori Amos " Winter This beautiful song is adored by thousands of women around the world. A song perfect for all of the women who have grown up with their fathers. This song however clearly represents the sadness that Eric experienced throughout his life. Sometimes, mothers and fathers have to spend most of their time away from home. Most of the time. Gary Baker the songwriter was away on business and the song represents his phone calls over the years between his wife. No matter how many miles he was apart from his family, he was always there in their presence. This song touched hearts around the world as people could relate to the scenario. It also touched people in other scenarios giving them an opportunity to always feel their presence. Before life gets complicated and the innocence is stripped away, Luther reflects on how his father made him laugh, and how much he was truly loved. Luther sadly lost his father which came as a huge shock. Even so, it is right to to point out that some girls do grow up without a father and are shown love and support by their mothers. Were all influenced by our family, and this is a part of life which forms who we are. Tell them how much you love them, and thank them for their unconditional love, support and guidance. This song by Keith Urban demonstrates how he turned out just like his father. This is a sweet song touching hearts around the world. The lyrics captured only become clear as we grow up and have children of our own. Reba never really touched with her father, since her dad was always busy and always had too much on his mind. This song was, without a doubt, one of the most romantic songs in American history. The song is believed to have not been about their bond, but about love. However, the lyrics do share an emotion with special bonds between fathers, mothers, and their children. Leave them in the comment section below. You might also be interested in:
