Shipping General delivery information available from the auctioneer Clevedon Salerooms can arrange packing and shipping for many of the items in the sale. Please contact Teresa Connor to discuss a quote on For larger items such as furniture, a quote can be obtained from Alban Shipping Tel: Unfortunately, only UK debit and credit cards can be authorised by the-saleroom. If you are non UK and wish to bid live at our auction, after registration please contact us direct for approval. Please note that we do not accept remote card payments. In addition we accept payment by bank transfer and by cheque all cheques must be cleared before removal of goods and this may take up to 8 working days. Lots purchased online with the-saleroom. It will not be possible to arrange any telephone bids on sale day. Clevedon Salerooms no longer undertake this service and will not pack items for collection by couriers etc. As an alternative we are pleased to recommend our local Bristol branch of Mailboxes, contact Sam Green Tel: Lots will not be released until the account has been settled in full. Accordingly Sellers are not paid until payment is received from the Buyer, nor is the Auctioneer necessarily in a position to know the history or of asses the quality of lots sold on behalf of these principals. In addition, lots sold are likely to have been subject to wear and tear caused by user or the effects of age and may therefore have faults and imperfections. No faults or imperfections are mentioned in the catalogue descriptions. Condition reports are available on request. Buyers are given ample opportunity at viewing times to examine lots to be sold and will be assumed to have done so. They must rely solely on their own skill or judgment as to whether lots are fit for any particular purpose, and as to compliance with the catalogue description or illustrations – see Condition 6. BIDS All bids made shall be treated as offers made upon these Conditions of Sale and all persons present are admitted to attend a sale on the basis that they have notice of these Conditions. In the case of a dispute as to the highest bidder during or immediately after the sale of the lot, the Auctioneer may if he thinks fit put up the lot again for sale. Unless the Auctioneer has previously acknowledged in writing that the Bidder bids as agent on behalf of a named principal, every Bidder shall be taken to bid on his own behalf as principal. If the Auctioneer has earlier acknowledged in writing that the Bidder bids as agent on behalf of a named principal, the Bidder warrants that he has the authority of his principal to make each bid he makes. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of purchases, no lots can be removed during the time of sale without the express consent of the Auctioneers; g if any person purchases two or more lots the prices of all must be paid before the delivery of any, and no transfer of any purchase will be recognised by the Auctioneers. Are hereby excluded; d any damage by the removal of any lots to be made good by the purchaser. Such damage to be assessed by the Auctioneers and to be paid for accordingly. Every person whilst upon the premises before, during or after the sale, shall be deemed to be there at his or her own risk, and with notice of the condition of the premises and effects, and the Auctioneers accept no responsibility for accident or damage from any cause to persons or their property whilst upon the premises. Subject to Condition 8, neither the Seller not the Auctioneer are responsible for the correctness of any description of any lot or its attribution in any manner to any particular originator. FORGERIES Notwithstanding Condition 6 and 7, if the Auctioneer receives in writing from the Buyer within 7 days of the sale that in his opinion a lot is a forgery as defined in Condition 11 and on giving such notification the lot in question is returned to the Auctioneer at his working premises in the same condition as when bought, then if on considering such evidence as the Buyer supplies to prove his assertion, the Auctioneer decides that the lot is a forgery the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price repaid to the Buyer. The only entitlement of the buyer under this condition is to the refund as described in this condition. The refund shall not extend to any other loss suffered by the buyer as a result of the lot being a forgery including but not limited to profits. Clevedon Salerooms shall have no other responsibility to the buyer. The right to make such a claim does not pass to any third party to whom the buyer may have transferred the lot. Any surplus so arising shall belong to the seller; iv. Clevedon Salerooms, all buyers and all vendors submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts. In our opinion a work by the artist. In our opinion probably a work by the artist but less certainty as to the authorship is expressed than in the preceding category. In our opinion a work in the style of the artist and of a later date. In our opinion a copy of a known work of the artist. A qualifying individual including the original artist must be a national of an EU member state. Any work selling for euros or more is subject to an additional charge as laid out below. This charge is payable by the buyer on any eligible lots based on the hammer price. Lots that may incur this charge will be denoted in the catalogue by AR.
