

Chapter 1 : International Day of the Disappeared in Georgia | International Committee of the Red Cross

My son was born out of wedlock in Georgia. I know that means his father has no legal right to custody, however when dealing with passports and international travel his signature is required as he's on the birth certificate.

When you enter the U. Issued to F-1 students from Georgia Tech after they have been admitted to the university, paid their deposit, and uploaded required financial documents. Travel signatures are valid for one year and multiple entries for continuing students, but for F-1 students on post-completion OPT, travel signatures are good for only 6 months. A travel signature is not required the first time you enter the U. Throughout your time at Georgia Tech, you will likely receive updated copies of your I as your program changes. You should keep each copy in a safe place where it is accessible because you will be required to submit past Is when applying for future immigration benefits. Issued to J-1 students, scholars, and interns. Most of these may be issued by Georgia Tech, but may have been issued by a government agency or a student exchange organization. You will also find information about your J-1 program, your dates of eligibility and a signature line verifying that you are eligible to travel and re-enter the United States. To request a travel signature, please log in to iStart and complete the Travel Signature e-form. OIE encourages all students, scholars, and student interns to submit a travel signature request when a plane ticket is bought to avoid last minute emergencies. Valid Passport Your passport is issued by your country of citizenship for the purpose of identification, and to allow you to enter and leave that country; you will not be able to travel without it. Your passport should always be valid for at least 6 months when entering the U. You will not be able to get a visa with a passport that is within 6 months of expiration. Visa International students, scholars, and student interns are required to have a visa stamp in their passport to enter the U. Your visa stamp indicates the immigration status in which you may enter the U. However, if you travel outside the U. When making travel plans after your visa has expired, please allow enough time to receive a new visa. Citizens of Canada and Bermuda are not required to obtain F or J visas. You will use your immigration documents issued by OIE to enter, but do not require a visa. There may be an exception in the requirement of having a valid U. I Record When international visitors arrive to the U. Visitors who have entered the U. Visitors who entered the U. Other Tips for Traveling Outside the U. The Department of Homeland Security recommends that students carry a copy of their most recent transcript and proof of financial support when they return. You should consult the embassy or consulate of the country or countries to which you will be visiting to see if you need a visitor or transit visa for that country.
