Coleman lost nine family members in the accident Thursday on Table Rock Lake which left 17 people dead. Charlie Riedel AP "Grab the baby! A huge wave hit, scattering passengers on the vessel known as a duck boat into Table Rock Lake near Branson, Coleman said, recounting the ordeal from a hospital bed. When the Indianapolis woman came up for air, she was alone. She spotted a rescue boat and swam as fast as she could. Hundreds of mourners stopped by the location to pay their respects to the victims after a duck boat sank in Table Rock Lake in a thunderstorm on Thursday. Authorities say 17 people died when the boat sank. None of the 31 passengers on board was wearing a life jacket, according to an incident report released Saturday by the Missouri State Highway Patrol. State and federal investigators were trying to determine what sent the vessel, originally built for military use in World War II, to its demise. Coleman said the crew told passengers they were going into the water first, before the land-based part of their tour, because of the incoming storm. The area had been under a severe thunderstorm watch for hours and a severe thunderstorm warning for more than 30 minutes before the boat sank. Company President Jim Pattison Jr. Twenty-nine passengers and two crew members were aboard. Fourteen people survived, including two adults who remained hospitalized Saturday. Coleman and her year-old nephew were the only of the 11 members of her family who boarded the boat to make it out alive. Another survivor was year-old Alicia Dennison, of Illinois, who says her grandmother, year-old Leslie Dennison, saved her from drowning. Another young survivor was year-old Loren Smith of Osceola, Arkansas. She suffered a concussion, but her father, year-old retired math teacher Steve Smith, and her year-old brother, Lance, died. Others killed included year-old William Bright and his year-old wife, Janice. The couple had recently celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary and had talked about Branson being one of their last big trips, recalled neighbor Barbara Beck. The couple moved to Higginsville from Kansas City, Missouri, three years earlier to be closer to a daughter and grandchildren and quickly embraced small-town life. Life, he wrote, had "been a lot of fun. They were so in love. McCay says Hamann told him the couple had just gone on a paddle boat and were planning to go again. Chance also brought the Colemans aboard the doomed vessel. Tia Coleman said her family initially lined up for the wrong tour so they had to switch out their tickets for the 6: When swells crashed into the boat, they were told to stay seated, she says. While the boat captain survived, its driver, year-old Bob Williams, did not. Branson Mayor Karen Best said Williams was a "great ambassador" for the city.

Every week, we ask brand and style expert Nick Ede for his opinion on the best and worst A-list outfits. Have they scored a sartorial hit or miss? The outfit Mel B is wearing is a red jumpsuit paired with a cheetah print jacket and heels. The outfit is very simple yet stylish, it would have been too plain but the cheetah print jacket and heels brings in a more trendy aspect. This is a causal yet trendy look from Ellie. She has a red over-sized, two-piece on with white trainer and bold necklaces. The outfit itself works very well and is a simple, fashionable look with her makeup matching the outfit and necklaces. This is a glamorous dress from Irina, yet the color is not very flattering. The dress is very bright and in your face; I think if the dress was another color it would improve the outfit massively. I do not like the colors and the bold sleeve on the dress. The black velvet material is not appealing and does not work well in bringing the outfit together. The two-piece Jenna is wearing looks very outdated and as though it is drowning her. The pattern is all over the outfit and does not look very flattering. The bold accessories on her arms are very unusual and do not work with the outfit. Dakota is wearing a patterned two-piece paired with blue heels, this is elegant and simple yet very trendy. The loose white top underneath the piece and pairing it with sunglasses brings the summer element to the outfit and a more casual vibe. This is a glamorous outfit from Elle. It is a simple white dress with diamond detailing at the top with a diamond bow. Having the outfit match overall also added another fashionable aspect, the yellow top matched with the bracelet and ring as they both included yellow diamonds, bringing the outfit all together as one. Kate looks very glamorous and fashionable in her red dress. The details on the dress are amazing and will grab the attention from everyone. This is paired with diamond earrings and the dress is very well fitted and flattering. She is wearing a white top and a brown jumper over her shoulders with denim jeans and red heeled boots. I like the way that she has paired the outfit with a red bag to match her boots and white sunglasses to match her top. Pairing both the skirt and long sleeve top together is not very stylish, and the outfit does not look pleasing on Emma. The colors are dull and paired with the silver shoes is not very stylish. The navy outfit fits her well and has a smart aspect, pairing it with the navy heels brings the outfit all together. As usual, Lady Gaga is wearing a glamorous outfit that will stand out from the crowd! The dress is very simple yet different and has unique aspects with the tassels throughout. The dress is paired with bold jewelry, statement clutch bag and black heels. The diamonds are everywhere, even on the bold accessories, the outfit just does not work together. The outfit from Tilda is very unique with the pattern being everywhere.

The year-old model has admitted to being rushed off her feet trying to raise her kids Anaca, 23 months, and Ariel, 11 weeks - but the South African beauty is also relishing the challenge. To see the love between them is amazing. The second one is a lot easier, but the situation of having two makes it harder. Speaking to People, she shared: I definitely want to have a bunch of kids. She said, too, that she actually enjoyed the experience of being pregnant. I loved my pregnancy too, all the different stages.
