

Chapter 1 : He lives - I serve a risen Savior (Hymn) - piano Chords - Chordify

He Lives Lyrics. I serve a risen Savior, He's in the world today; I know that He is living whatever men may say; I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer.

He reigneth forever and ever. How true a song brings the message of Jesus Christ to the world. Thank you for this website. Praise God for wonderful hymns like this. I say again He lives! The Holy Spirit is fanned, the flame rekindled, and my heart lifted! And He always will be! We sang it often at devotions. I love it and its message is especially meaningful at this time of year. That was 70years ago. The words for me are just as true today on this Easter Day. Apr 15 Fiona Australia I have just woken on this Easter Sunday with this song resignating my praise to the risen Lord Easter blessings to whom ever reads. How about you guys. I can still hear her singing it to us. The song just popped up in my mind tonight. I smiled at the memory I miss her so much. Feb 18 Gene Canfield Port Orchard, Washington, United States Was lying in bed and could not get frustrations of my work out of my mind and angrily asked God to clear my mind. He immediately brought this hymn from my childhood I am 63 to my mind. What an answer to my prayer. We serve a risen savior not this world. What an amazing God we serve. Our Lord and Savior said that the kingdom of God was on the inside of us. What a wonderful experence to be able to walk in the garden early in the morning and to have Him speak to us. To have a relationship with the Most Highâ€”how wonderful!

Christian hymns and spiritual songs with wonderful truths and music.} I serve a risen Savior He's in the world today. I know that He is living, Whatever men may say.

Previous Next He Lives! A day we celebrate the fact that our God is not dead, is not wood or stone, but is alive and well able to save! As I read over the story again in the Gospels, I came across Luke Caught in the sudden amazement of it and marveling at His appearance, the disciples were having difficulty grasping what had happened. This was so wonderful, so magnificent of news that how could it really be true? Look at my hands and my feet. I tell you; He is not dead, but lives here and now! Jesus Christ is more alive today than ever before. I can prove it by my own experience, as well as the testimony of countless thousands. On that Resurrection Day as he rose early to prepare, Ackley turned on his radio. His body could have turned to dust long ago in some Palestinian tomb. But later that night, he still could not shake the question of that young Jewish student and the words of that liberal preacher. It was then that his wife encouraged him to do something about it. Alfred Ackley was a talented musician as well as a pastor. When he was younger, his father had diligently trained him in the area of music. Ackley encouraged her husband to use his skills and write a song about the truth of our risen Savior. Little did he know it would soon become one of the most favorite sung Easter hymns. He lives, He lives, salvation to impart! You ask me how I know He lives? He lives within my heart. The devil is fighting to remove Christ from everything we have and do, and, unfortunately, it seems he is succeeding in much of it. Where are the redeemed of the Lord? Where are those that have been saved and look forward to that Blessed Hope? Should Christians do nothing when the world brings a fight? What a joy, what a blessing, what power of God we have with the Truth that Jesus is alive and was resurrected from the dead. His victory over death gives us eternal life. Whom have you told this to recently? With whom have you shared this life-changing news? Will you invite someone to Easter service to hear the Gospel? Let us not be silent but zealous and loud that Jesus lives!

I praise the Lord for those seeds that were so loving sowed. I love you Grandma and Grandpa Duncan. May God bless you and keep you until we meet again. Gram and Gramps joined her and oh what joy filled our hearts as we sang together. Jul 11 Tabitha Amj Lagos, Nigeria This song came to my heart so strongly on the 3rd day of July, ; when I came to the understanding, appreciation and acknowledgment of the provision of God that I received, not just by looking to that cross on which He died, but actually SEEING what Christ wrought for me there, then and even now. Everyone knew I was going through hell. I was in secondary form 2 then. A very good friend and a classmate of mine visited me to offer his sympathy and console me. He suggested to me to find help outside the realm of God and Godliness, such as going to seek help with a native doctor or a soothsayer. Instantly, this song rang in my heart and I sang it silently within me. I told my I will do no such thing that I will continue to trust my God to see me through. I had my peace thank, though I still the problem. But in His own good time the Lord helped me out. Apr 23 Laura A. I just saw your comment after I was looking for the full lyrics to this song. I think I know the answer: I still remember several of those songs, so we must have sung them often. This hymn was one that I know I learned there. I was surprised that so many of those in attendance knew it well because there were many voices of his comrades raised in song. Apr 4 D. Was beginning to feel a little burdened, then I got to "And though my heart grows weary, I never will despair; I know that He is leading". Just the reminder I needed!!! How on time our God is!!! Sure miss singing these time tested song in church. They are songs brought out in the souls night. They used the Cokesbury hymnal, which has many of the old hymns in it, and this is one we would sing for Easter. Amazing what memories flood back when a favorite old hymn comes to mind.
