Chapter 1 : Happy Veterans Day Messages [+]

Memorial Day or Decoration Day is a federal holiday in the United States for remembering the people who died while serving in the country's armed forces. The holiday, which is currently observed every year on the last Monday of May, will be held on May 28,

National Flag Foundation Because the U. Flag is the symbol of our country, it should always be displayed in the most prominent, most honored position. No other flag should ever appear more important. The flag of the United States is a living symbol that calls to our spirit, reminding us of the greatness of America. We cherish and uphold it because it is the standard of honor under which we live. We view the flag with devotion, for it represents our national heritage of noble deeds, splendid accomplishment, and untold sacrifices which combined to establish the moral character of our country. Our flag is a symbol that makes our past one with the present and makes the present a foundation for tomorrow. It signifies a people dedicated to liberty, justice and freedom for all. It is our companion around the world. It summons confidence on sight. There is a magic in its folds that continually renews the hope that this nation, under God, will long be an example everywhere for all who love freedom with honor. We give homage to the flag because it stands for the courageous, earnest, and unselfish experiences of our people who have given us strength as a nation and pride as citizens. We respect our flag because we have respect for our fellow citizens, and because our love for country finds its center in our flag. The customs and traditions which surround the display and use of our flag are guides to the means by which we as proud and grateful citizens may demonstrate the ultimate respect for the flag of our nation. In honoring and saluting our flag we demonstrate affection for our nation, fellow citizens and the proud future we share. Displaying the Flag Properly Source: National Flag Foundation On a Wall: Flag is among a group of subordinate flags, the U. Flag should be at the cent and at the highest point “ the position of prominence. Displayed from a Staff: When several flags are flown from the same pole, the U. Flag should always be at the top “ except during church services by naval chaplains at sea when the church pennant may be flown above the U. When the flag is displayed as a lapel pin, it should be worn on the left lapel “ near the heart. Flag at half-staff is an honored tradition which signifies that the nation is in mourning due to the death of a prominent citizen. To position the flag at half-staff, first hoist the flag to the peak of the staff for an instant before lowering it to the half-staff position “ roughly halfway between the top and bottom of the staff. Before lowering it for the day, raise the flag again to the peak for an instant. Here is a typical sequence of the reading: The portion of the flag denoting honor is the canton of blue containing the stars representing the states our veterans served in uniform. The canton field of blue dresses from left to right and is inverted when draped as a pall on a casket of a veteran who has served our country in uniform. The next morning it is brought out and, at the ceremony of reveille, run aloft as a symbol of our belief in the resurrection of the body. The second fold is a symbol of our belief in the eternal life. The third fold is made in honor and remembrance of the veteran departing our ranks who gave a portion of life for the defense of our country to attain a peace throughout the world. The fourth fold represents our weaker nature, for as American citizens trusting in God, it is to Him we turn in times of peace as well as in times of war for His divine guidance. It is with our heart that we pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. The seventh fold is a tribute to our Armed Forces, for it is through the Armed Forces that we protect our country and our flag against all her enemies, whether they be found within or without the boundaries of our republic. The ninth fold is a tribute to womanhood; for it has been through their faith, love, loyalty and devotion that the character of the men and women who have made this country great have been molded. The tenth fold is a tribute to father, for he, too, has given his sons and daughters for the defense of our country since they were first born. The eleventh fold, in the eyes of a Hebrew citizen, represents the lower portion of the seal of King David and King Solomon, and glorifies, in their eyes, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The twelfth fold, in the eyes of a Christian citizen, represents an emblem of eternity and glorifies, in their eyes, God the Father, the Son, and Holy Ghost.

Folding the Flag 1. To fold the flag correctly, bring the striped half up over the blue field. Then fold it in half again. Bring the lower striped corner to the upper edge, forming a triangle. Then fold the upper point in to form another triangle. Continue until the entire length of the flag is folded. When you get near the endâ€”nothing but the blue field showingâ€”tuck the last bit into the other folds to secure it. The final folded flag resembles a cocked hat with only the white stars on a blue field showing.

Chapter 2 : Patriotic Songs for God and Country

Let Memorial Day be a day to count our blessings and remember those who serve to protect our country and our freedom. On this Memorial Day let the memories of the dauntless and valiant martyrs be with us.

Beliefs Veterans Day Monday is Veterans Day, a day in which we are to show our gratitude for the sacrifice of our veterans. A day of parades and speeches and flags and Where did Veterans Day come from? How did it become a national holiday? Why do we call it Veterans Day? Where does God come into all this - or does He? Again, today I want to discuss some thoughts on the meaning of Veterans Day. The First World War which was called the war to end all wars ended at 11 AM on the 11th day of the 11th month in After the war ended, Congress declared November 11th an annual holiday and called it Armistice Day. Canada observes the same holiday, calling it Remembrance Day. About , after the Second World War, the name was changed to Veterans Day but the holiday was kept on the same date, except for a brief period from The holiday is intended as a tribute to veterans, both alive and dead. The President usually attends a wreath-laying ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown at Arlington Cemetery; various cities and towns have Veterans Day parades by Veterans Organizations, patriotic citizens, and schools. Until about respect and appreciation toward veterans has been demonstrated by virtually all Americans. Since Americans have shown a declining interest in veterans and the positive side of American history, particularly American military history. Why this decline in patriotism? Why do more and more cities discontinue their Veterans Day parades? Why do more and more citizens look at our national holidays as just another day off work, another day to watch the ball game or go to the beach or some other form of recreation? Why do most cities have Veterans Memorial buildings which were built years ago but few are built today? In fact, why have so many memorial buildings been torn down and not replaced? I want to review the course of U. We could start as far back as Columbus, a man who pictured himself as fulfilling a great purpose of God. World War II was destined to affect more nations, damage more property, cost more money, and kill more people than any past war. Some estimate total military and civilian deaths to have been about fifty-five million. In the s and s and again now serious economic depression stalked the world. In an effort to solve the depression, nations installed strong leaders who promised corrective measures at any cost. The cost in Germany and Italy was dictatorial, nationalistic government. Japan already had a militaristic government carried over from her conquests of Manchuria and China. On January 30th, , Hitler was named chancellor of Germany. Joseph Goebbels was named Minister of Propaganda. Genius in all fields of human endeavor means - to have been called. When Hitler speaks all resistance breaks down before the magical effect of his words. By , Hitler sent troops into the Rhineland to see what Britain and France would do about it. This added 7 million to the Third Reich and put it in a very good strategic position in Europe. His excuse was that he wished to liberate the three and a quarter million Germans who lived in Sudetenland. Czechoslovakia began mobilizing for war. Hitler feared that England and France might side with Czechoslovakia and begin a general war. They sent Edouard Daladier and Nevill Chamberlain to meet the German dictator and offer a deal - they would allow Hitler to take half of Czechoslovakia. Hitler, of course, took all of Czechoslovakia. But France and Britain and Russia were at last alerted. To remove the threat of Russia, Hitler secretly offered her half of Poland. The offer was too good to ignore. Russia and Germany signed a nonaggression pact on August 23rd, Hitler was troubled by reports England and France might go to war if he attacked Poland. On the 26th of August the following was reported: Suddenly he stopped in the middle of the room and stood staring. His voice was blurred and his behavior that of a completely abnormal person. Britain and France declared war on Germany the same day, September 1st. On the 17th, Russia attacked Poland from the east. By May 14th, , they had taken Belgium and were attacking France. It took them six days to cross France and reach the channel. At this point in history, Hitler issued one of his strangest orders: The English channel became calm. Every civilian boat in the area was ordered to Dunkirk. Over , were evacuated from May 26th until June 4th. This evacuation has been named the "Miracle of Dunkirk. On July

10th, Germany began bombing British airfields, aircraft factories and radar stations. From July until September 7th, Germany continued this attack. Then on September 7th, Germany switched targets to British cities. This change came just in the nick of time because the British Air Force Fighter Command had been severely damaged and could not continue much longer. The British felt they could sacrifice cities if they could remain in control of their skies. Germany needed to destroy the Royal Air Force because it alone could destroy the planned German sea invasion. By October 12th, Hitler realized he could not destroy the Royal Air Force and canceled the sea invasion until the following spring. He later postponed the invasion again until he could destroy Russia. Another interference from the Guiding Hand. The British needed military supplies from the U. Many of these convoys were decimated by German submarines. In May , the Germans sent their biggest and newest battleship, the Bismarck, into the Atlantic to attack Allied shipping. The Royal Navy pulled out all the stops to find and sink her. But the Bismarck was in such a hurry to slip into the Atlantic that she failed to top off her fuel tanks in Norway and so, when the British caught up with her, she had to return to France for more fuel. Nearly the entire British Atlantic fleet was after her. One is very diffident about these things, but for a long time I have been a great believer in prayer. In the last few weeks I have prayed as I have never prayed before in my life. If anyone had said that we could meet the Bismarck, that great ship with her main armament of 9 inch and 15 inch guns unimpaired, and come out of the action without loss of a single British life, no one would have believed him. It can only be attributed to one thing. I firmly believe that the result of this action was due to Divine Guidance and Intervention. Hitler had hoped to knock Russia out of the war before America joined her European Allies. But Japan spoiled that plan when she attacked Pearl Harbor on December 7, Now the mighty U. At that time America was self-sufficient and did not depend upon other countries for oil or steel or electronics or shipbuilding or very much of anything. The words "Made in USA", found on nearly everything, indicated quality. In mid-August , Lt. What kind of a man was "Monty"? He was known as the "Spartan General". He rose at 6 AM and went to bed at 9 PM. He had a fanatical belief in physical fitness. The next very major military operation in Europe was the landing at Normandy. The Germans knew it was coming. They had fortified the entire Atlantic coast from Norway to Spain. Rommel had warned Hitler that the first 24 hours of the landing would be critical for both the Allies and the Germans. The Allies had to be stopped on the beaches. They could not be allowed to penetrate inland. The project was called Operation Overlord. General Eisenhower would later describe the massive military build-up as "a mighty engine of righteous destruction. As a result of the storm many top German generals were away from their commands, believing that the weather would prevent a landing. Rommel himself was visiting his wife in Germany on her birthday, June 6th. Operation Overlord achieved a complete surprise. A few hours after the landing, President Roosevelt included the following in a statement to the American public: Our sons, pride of our Nation, this day have set out upon a mighty endeavor, a struggle to preserve our Republic, our religion, and our civilization and to set free a suffering humanity

The Best on Earth: If someone has done military service, They earn the title "veteran," and more; They earn our deep respect and admiration; That they are special no one can ignore. They sacrificed the comforts we enjoy; The list is long of all the things they gave. When terror and invasion were real threats, They showed us they could handle any storm. We owe our freedoms and our very lives To our veterans, who served in uniform. These men and women served us and our country, Our veterans--the very best on earth. The Noble and the Brave: They left their friends and family; They gave up normal life; To serve their country and their God, They plowed into the strife. They fought for freedom and for peace On strange and foreign shores; Some lost new friends; some lost their lives In long and brutal wars. Other veterans answered a call To support the ones who fought; Their country had requirements for The essential skills they brought. We salute every one of them, The noble and the brave, The ones still with us here today, And those who rest in a grave. Fascists may secretly feel about veterans. No partisan politics can keep away The gratitude I feel, but cannot say To veterans who kept America secured, With all the hardships they endured. Away from family, friends and more, They knew what they were working for: Keeping freedom really free For the right, the middle, and even me. The liberties they preserved. Our heroes, our veterans kept freedom safe; All of us owe them a lot. Multi Branches of Service. Whatever would keep us all safe Is what they were called to do, Rough duties of every kind Protecting us: So when you see Vets, please thank them For their service and sacrifice. Be aware, and always remember For us, they paid a price. Congress changed the name to Veterans Day in Veterans Day, a legal holiday in the U. FOURTH of July /Memorial Day/ Flag Day So grateful for those who gave the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom. I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

What a wonderful lesson this was for me. I do not recall ever being taught this in school. Those who think that America is an arrogant nation should really reconsider that thought. I hope you take the time to read this To understand what the flag draped coffin really means Here is how to understand the flag that laid upon it and is surrendered to so many widows and widowers: Do you know that at military funerals, the gun salute stands for the sum of the numbers in the year ? Have you ever noticed that the honor guard pays meticulous attention to correctly folding the United States of America Flag 13 times? You probably thought it was to symbolize the original 13 colonies, but we learn something new every day! The 1st fold of the flag is a symbol of life. The 2nd fold is a symbol of the belief in eternal life. The 3rd fold is made in honor and remembrance of the veterans departing the ranks who gave a portion of their lives for the defense of the country to attain peace throughout the world. The 4th fold represents the weaker nature, for as American citizens trusting in God, it is to Him we turn in times of peace as well as in time of war for His divine guidance. It is with their heart that they pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America , and the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all. The 7th fold is a tribute to its Armed Forces, for it is through the Armed Forces that they protect their country and their flag against all her enemies, whether they be found within or without the boundaries of their republic.. The 8th fold is a tribute to the one who entered into the valley of the shadow of death, that we might see the light of day. The 9th fold is a tribute to womanhood, and Mothers. For it has been through their faith, their love, loyalty and devotion that the character of the men and women who have made this country great has been molded. The 10th fold is a tribute to the father, for he, too, has given his sons and daughters for the defense of their country since they were first born. The 12th fold represents an emblem of eternity and glorifies, in the Christians eyes, God the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit. There are some traditions and ways of doing things that have deep meaning.

Not yet dry behind the ears, not old enough to buy a beer, but old enough to die for his country. He can recite to you the nomenclature of a machine gun or grenade launcher and use either one effectively if he must. He digs foxholes and latrines and can apply first aid like a professional. He can march until he is told to stop, or stop until he is told to march. He obeys orders instantly and without hesitation, but he is not without spirit or individual dignity. He sometimes forgets to brush his teeth, but never to clean his rifle. He can cook his own meals, mend his own clothes, and fix his own hurts. He has learned to use his hands like weapons and weapons like they were his hands. He can save your life-or take it, because that is his job. He will often do twice the work of a civilian, draw half the pay, and still find ironic humor in it all. He has seen more suffering and death than he should have in his short lifetime. He has wept in public and in private, for friends who have fallen in combat and is unashamed. Just as did his father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, he is paying the price for our freedom. Beardless or not, he is not a boy. He is the American Fighting Man that has kept this country free for over two hundred years. He has asked nothing in return, except our friendship and understanding. Remember him, always, for he has earned our respect and admiration with his blood. And now we have women over there in danger, doing their part in this tradition of going to war when our nation calls us to do so. As you go to bed tonight, remember this. A short lull, a little shade, and a picture of loved ones in their helmets.

Hearts unfold for those in need, Unselfishness the world can view. We have people who want to do good, Honor, integrity and more. Real love for our fellow man Is something we have at our core. We the people love our country, Overcoming war and strife; We will fight to keep our freedom, Sacrificing blood and life. Lord and father of mankind, Please keep us safe with holy power. May we be in Thy protection, Every day and every hour. We will pray to always obey You, All that we have, it comes from You. Giver of our rights and freedoms, Your commands we will pursue. By Joanna Fuchs Patriotic poems can send supportive patriotic messages to those in the military. This patriotic poem is an I Miss You poem for spouses, sweethearts and parents of those who are serving in the military. This missing you poem would certainly be welcome for those who are far from home. If your loved one is not in combat, you could change "fighting" to "serving" in the last line. This patriotic poem is about Memorial Day. Patriotic verse can often bring tears. This Memorial Day poem, a tribute from a mother to her son, is among the most heart-wrenching of patriotic poems. Eyewitnesses to battlefield deaths testify that often that last thing soldiers say before dying is "Mommy, Mommy. She kisses the pain away, and thinks, "I love this boy, my baby, my own. He wants to be a soldier now; His mother stifles her protest. A mortal wound brings on his death, And as he takes his final breath, "Mommy, Mommy! His mother sits and weeps today; She cannot kiss this pain away. She hears his voice; she sees his smile; "I love this boy, my baby, my own! In Loving Memory should be a message of honor, respect and love: In loving memory of one who is a cut above the rest of us, who had the surpassing courage, the uncommon strength, to do whatever had to be done, persevering through hardship and pain. In loving memory of one who was brave enough to give his life, his all, so that those he cared about would remain safe and free. In loving memory of a unique and treasured soldier who will never be forgotten. This patriotic verse can be used as a Memorial Day poem. In the past, some veterans, living and deceased, have not been honored for their service the way they should have been. The decision to go to war and to stay in a war accrues to politicians, not to our men and women in the armed forces. This patriotic message in a Memorial Day poem about Vietnam veterans reminds us to thank those in uniform for what they did for our country. While in service, these courageous men endured unceasing vilification in the media, in the streets, for doing what their country asked of them. Those blessed to make it through came home to devastating humiliation, spat upon, emotionally wounded just for serving and protecting America. Stress from war experiences and from this horrific homecoming produced countless suicides, leaving families devastated as well. How could this happen? Let our guilt forever remind us that we must never let it happen again. Dear God, we repent for our callousness. How can we atone? Let us strive to honor our brave soldiers, our strongest and best, those who serve us in ways we could never do ourselves. Let us thank them for their service at every opportunity.

Towns across America host parades on Memorial Day and the Fourth of July. This patriotic version of the popular "Keep Calm" slogan evokes the American flag, as well as the idea of waving at a hometown parade.

Veterans Day is celebrated across United States by remembering the soldiers that were involved in civil war and all the other military operations. Later the name was changed from decoration day to Veterans Day. In this post we have collected some of the Best Veterans Day Quotes and Sayings that truly portrays the bravery, determination, courage of our soldiers. If you liked this article, do share it with your friends on Facebook, Stumble Upon and other social networks. Veterans Day quotes When you think about the benevolent souls who penance their bliss for our security, you acknowledge the amount you must be appreciative for. Here are Veterans Day adages to honor saints the world over. A hero is someone who has given his or her life to something bigger than oneself. Blow out, you bugles, over the rich Dead! And there is no freedom of thought without doubt. Are they dead that yet act? Are they dead that yet move upon society and inspire the people with nobler motives and more heroic patriotism? The real war will never get in the books. Ready to do what a hero can. It is not the urge to surpass all others at whatever cost, but the urge to serve others at whatever cost. The brave die never, though they sleep in dust: Their courage nerves a thousand living men. They died for liberty – they died for us. They are at rest. They sleep in the land they made free, under the flag they rendered stainless, under the solemn pines, the sad hemlocks, the tearful willows, and the embracing vines. They sleep beneath the shadows of the clouds, careless alike of sunshine or of storm, each in the windowless Place of Rest. Earth may run red with other wars – they are at peace. In the midst of battle, in the roar of conflict, they found the serenity of death. I have one sentiment for soldiers living and dead: Here are given few Veterans Day Inspirational Quotes: There is nothing wrong with America that cannot be cured by what is right with America. Who kept the faith and fought the fight; The glory theirs, the duty ours. There were also those who came out of the trenches as writers and poets, who started preaching peace, men and women who have made this world a kinder place to live. Liberty, when it begins to take root, is a plant of rapid growth. We were a bunch of scared kids who had a job to do. Sledge WWII, Pacific This country will not be a good place for any of us to live in unless we make it a good place for all of us to live in. Garfield America will never be destroyed from the outside. If we falter and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves. Peace is more important than all justice; and peace was not made for the sake of justice, but justice for the sake of peace. The grim cannon have turned into palm branches, and the shell and shrapnel into peach blossoms. Liberty is the right to choose, freedom is the result of that choice. Free will is not the liberty to do whatever one likes, but the power of doing whatever one sees ought to be done, even in the very face of otherwise overwhelming impulse. There lies freedom, indeed. It is Veterans Day. Please take a moment to remember those service members who gave the ultimate sacrifice to protect the rights we cherish. He that learns from everyone. He that governs his passions. He that is content. If you can read this, thank a teacher. Let us remember as we fall asleep those who fight and the many that have died to protect our freedom. Honor those who have so honored us. People who say that there are no Sorrays or Thank Yous in friendship, are wrong. Worries in my life are halved because I can share them with you. Happiness in my life is doubled because you never let me feel blue. Today I want to declare, that your friendship is worth more than millions of likes on Facebook and hundreds of thousands of retweets on Twitter. Thanks for being a REAL friend. You have been the foundation of our friendship, my pillar of strength and the wall which shields me from every sorrow. If you were a house, I could live inside you. My friend, thanks for being with me through thick and thin. Our friendship helps me bloom into the person I am. I need you like how a flower needs sunshine. If friends like you came with price tags, I would have been a millionaire. The way you help me solve all the problems in my life, sometimes I think that you are a fairy in disguise. Veterans Day Prayers On this Veterans Day, we pause to reflect upon our blessings as a nation and the high cost of those blessings for many. Thank you for the freedom we enjoy in this country, for opportunities to flourish, and for the security of our land. Thank you for those who have served in the armed services of our country, risking their lives for our liberty. Thank you for those who have given their lives in service to our country, sacrificing in such a costly way for the sake of others. Thank you for a day set apart, not just for celebration, but also for solemn remembrance as we consider the sacrifices of so many in our military. O Lord, may we be more aware of just how blessed we are as a nation. May we be more grateful for our blessings, more faithful in stewarding them well, more eager to share them with others. Veterans Day Whats app Status War is too serious a matter to entrust to military men. Moderation in the pursuit of justice is no virtue. It is the argument of tyrants; it is the creed of slaves. Action, self-reliance, the vision of self and the future have been the only means by which the oppressed have seen and realized the light of their own freedom. Our nation owes a debt to its fallen heroes that we can never fully repay, but we can honor their sacrifice –” President Barack Obama The legacy of heroes is the memory of a great name and the inheritance of a great example. Benjamin Disraeli I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country. There is nothing wrong with America that cannot be cured with what is right in America. Extremism in the defense of liberty is no vice. What we have once enjoyed deeply we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. How important it is for us to recognize and celebrate our heroes and she-roes! War may sometimes be a necessary evil but no matter how necessary, it is always evil, never a good. We want to thank you for such sacrifice. This is the day which not only need celebration but we also we should remember those who love us more than their own life.
