Chapter 2 : Making Learning Fun | Free Early Learning Printables

Mr. Gumpy's Outing is a light hearted story about www.nxgvision.com going on a boat trip. On the boat he leave a lot of animals get on the board. However, as the boat moves the noise gets louder and louder and the boat eventually breaks.

Gumpy might indeed have a surname that tends to suggest he is perhaps a bit curmudgeonly and really not all that affable, as Gumpy does look very very similar to Grumpy, and at first I indeed read the book title as being Mr. Gumpy not only invites everyone in for tea, but also extends an invitation to everyone, from the goat to the children, to join him on another boat ride. A lovely marriage of evocative text and expressively descriptive images, and yes, Mr. To view it, click here. The illustrations are very peaceful and warm, though, and it was a pleasing read. I did have to laugh at myself, though, as my brain kept seeing the word as "gRumpy" on the cover so when I saw the first illustration of the smiling chap I had to do a double-take and saw my mistake ;- It was a pleasant surprise to find that we went on an outing with someone decidedly un-grumpy! I suppose falling out of the boat was one though it ended well. Gumpy knew that little children and little animals are just not able to keep still that long and I appreciated that everyone could laugh and enjoy the mishap and a lovely spot of tea. Children are so often criticized simply for being young and carefree spirits--it was sweet to see Mr. Gumpy cherishing this aspect of childhood instead of berating it. One day he decides to take a trip on his boat down the river. However, two children ask to join him, he agrees on the condition that they do not squabble. Then other animals like a rabbit, cat, dog, sheep, calf, chickens, goat and a pig all ask My Gumpy if they can go on the boat too. Kind Mr Gumpy agrees as long as they do not do what they are known for e. At first, the boat ride is This story is about Mr Gumpy who lives in a farm by the river. At first, the boat ride is calm, until the children squabble! The dog chases the cat! Before you know it, the boat breaks and the animals all fall into the river. However, a patient Mr Gumpy decides to walk back and have tea with the animals before bed time. A fabulous read, especially for the early years. I observed this book being read to a reception class where it was used meet the Early Learning Goals. The book was also used as a stimulus to introduce children to the concept of adding and taking away. A great book which can be used as a vehicle into many early years areas in a cross-curricular manner. Definitely worth reading as it not only educates, but children enjoy it too, making learning fun and enjoyable.
