Chapter 1 : Physician Assistants Policy & Practice (Paperback, ) 3rd EDITION | Physician Assistant

I enjoyed the sections on the history of Physician Assistants. The book is laid out in a logical fashion progressing through the chapters. Some of the studies and statistics have become outdated but, still valid based on the findings.

Through his leadership positions in the field, Professor Cawley has worked to increase access to primary care through the use of physician assistants and other nonphysician clinicians. In addition to co-authoring four books on the PA field, he has published extensively in the areas of primary care and health workforce policy. Journal of the American Academy of Physician Assistants, Annals of Family Medicine, in press.
