

Chapter 1 : Playboy () - Magazines Archive

Product Information "Playboy" magazine has been a favorite for men around the world for a long time. The December "Playboy" back issue of the magazine is one of the most popular and sought after issues of the magazine.

About Marilyn Monroe - The Sweetheart of the Month in December Playboy magazine will forever be recognized for its social significance in reflecting as well as contributing to popular American culture. Issue number one, featuring Marilyn Monroe on the cover, is one of the most recognizable icons of popular culture and Americana. Marilyn grew up not knowing for sure who her father really was. Her mother, Gladys, had entered into several relationships, further confusing her daughter as to who it was who fathered her. Poverty was a constant companion to Gladys and Norma. Gladys, who was extremely attractive and worked for RKO Studios as a film cutter, suffered from mental illness and was in and out of mental institutions for the rest of her life, and because of that Norma Jeane spent time in foster homes. When she was nine she was placed in an orphanage where she was to stay for the next two years. Upon being released from the orphanage, she went to yet another foster home. Marilyn Monroe, who was featured in the first issue, was the only one to appear as "Sweetheart of the Month". In addition, Anniversary Playmates are usually chosen to celebrate a milestone year of the magazine. In the s, it was generally agreed that nude photographs were not pornographic unless they showed pubic hair. Respectable photography was careful to come close to, but not cross over the "line of decency". The first Playmate to clearly have the first full frontal nude centerfold was Miss January , Marilyn Cole. Incidentally, both women went on to become Playmate of the Year. In December , year-old Hugh Hefner published the very first Playboy magazine. In that first run, Hefner sold 54, copies of Playboy magazine at 50 cents each. The first edition sold so well because Marilyn Monroe was the "Sweetheart of the Month" which was thereafter termed "playmate". On the front cover of the first edition of Playboy, Marilyn Monroe appeared waving her hand. Inside, Marilyn Monroe bared it all in the centerfold. Monroe did not pose nude specifically for Playboy; Hefner had purchased the picture from a local printer who made calendars.
