

Chapter 1 : | Southern Living

Staying at the WhiteGate Inn & Cottage with its lush gardens and private carriage house is always a treat, but come Christmas, it's a winter wonderland. Not only is the historic inn in the heart of Asheville, North Carolina, the perfect place to spend a romantic weekend (it's frequently).

Stay at WhiteGate Inn 1. V did not work. Had to move all of our luggage to another room. Very old room dirty furniture. Mirror above sink terrible. You could not even see yourself. No bottled water or snacks in the refrigerator. V very small and not clear. Kind of snowy background. Find another Bed and Breakfast. Possibly the rooms inside the Inn were nice. Did not see them because we had a small 12 pound dog. They gave us the "Dog" room. Walt Whitman Room 3. Was so cozy, nice two way fireplace and huge jacuzzi. Enjoyed the get together for breakfast and small social hour. Frank is a good story teller!! Everyone makes us feel welcome and breakfast is such a treat when both Ralph and Frank are on site to serve and entertain us. They build a wonderful community of travelers each morning at breakfast. A great getaway 5 on August 04, The property is beautiful, the gardens even better. Ralph and Frank were the perfect hosts and, to us, that is the key to the bed and breakfast experience. The best place to stay that I know of! A feeling of luxury everywhere! A vacation location that cannot be beat!! The three course breakfast is amazingly good, and the dining room is a piece of 19th century beauty! I found the WhiteGate in to be perfect as it was close enough to downtown that you could walk and the innkeepers were great. Not only did they answer any questions I had but just talking to them and learning about their story made it feel like home. I felt like part of a family. The social hour was very special. Loaded with charm and modern conveniences. Lovely surroundings and near to town. Innkeeper Response Thank you for taking the time to write a review! The Chihuly exhibit is going to be great to enjoy until Fall comes and we can continue to enjoy everything downtown that is walking distance from our inn - Innkeeper innkeeper Perfect Stay, Perfectly Located 4. House is comfortable and stay was quiet and relaxing. Food and Service exceptional. Innkeeper Response We appreciate you taking the time to write a review so others can be assisted in making a decision to stay with us as well. We hope you got to take full advantage of being able to walk to any shop or restaurant downtown within 10 minutes. We look forward to your return visit. Thank you - Innkeeper innkeeper 5 on April 25, Always a great getaway. Quiet, tranquil, close to downtown yet felt secluded. Great staff Innkeeper Response Thank you for the feedback! We appreciate the sentiments and will let the staff know. We hope to see you again soon - Innkeeper Manager innkeeper always a great Breakfast in a beautiful BnB. There is an art to hovering over diners and Frank is adept at that art. Promoting pleasant conversations while keeping the meal on track, peppered in with some great laughs and useful info on Asheville, Fully recommended by my Wife and I. We take pride in our breakfast and think our new chef has been doing an incredible job as well. We will be sure to pass your thoughts on to him as well. We appreciate your input and hope to have you back soon. The owner served a great breakfast each day. We loved the privacy of the Carriage house and would recommend it for those looking to rekindle the romance. The housekeeping was a bit off and would expect better service for such a wonderful place. Innkeeper Response We appreciate you taking the time to write a review. We have recently made some changes with our housekeeping and are getting them up to speed with service quality and expectations. We appreciate your patience while here and will strive to make the appropriate corrections for your next visit! We felt some effort could have been made at accommodating our request. Day 1 breakfast all sweets, no protein; Day 2 breakfast - eggs, tasteless sausage, excellent OJ, good coffee and yummy, warm apple pie. Not pleased that the owner, who was sick Day 1, was in the kitchen Day 2 coughing while we had our breakfast. Unsure if he prepared any of the meal, but he should not have been in the kitchen that morning this while people are sick and dying from the flu. Overall experience was a negative for us. Excellent long weekend away with my wife! The staff was extremely helpful with anything we needed, to include recommendations for things to do in the Asheville area. We will definitely be visiting again and would recommend the WhiteGate in highly! Everything about your Inn and staff and wonderful breakfasts was perfect. So sorry we had to leave early. I grew up in a home so I was very comfortable. Radiators were standard throughout. Thank you for your hospitality. Pat Dube Best breakfast ever! The staff is friendly and gave solid advice on dinner spots, entertainment and other places to visit in the area. BUT the breakfasts were wonderful, creative, and delicious. Frank is an enthusiastic host with funny personal stories, adding to the total experience. The pictures tell a different story than what the Whitegate Inn actually looks like. We absolutely loved our stay there! We booked a couples massage in our room. It was wonderfully relaxing! Beautiful Property 5 on June 28, Our 2nd time here at Whitegate. Beautiful accommodations and grounds. Breakfast with dessert is awesome. Will definitely be back again. Great experience and great location! Other than that zero complaints. We loved the food and the owner and the room was very nice. We could not have asked for a more hospitable, beautiful, and comfortable stay. This was our first stay at a B and B and it will definitely not be our last. Frank and Ralph really put their heart and soul into white gate and you can feel it from the moment you arrive. An inn not to miss! The inn is lovely as are the grounds even though spring had not yet "sprung"! Frank, Ralph, Thomas and Crystal were marvelous hosts and very entertaining as well. Breakfast is the best ever and is creatively presented The afternoon social offers wonderful food and wine We enjoyed a wonderful social time with the guests, but the breakfast was to die for! Yes, the food was great, but the hosts were even better! I wish I could carry Frank and Ralph in my pocket everywhere because they are amazing!!!! Ralph and Frank were attentive owners and the staff was very gracious and helpful. We made use of the spa services which were wonderful and available in our room. Breakfasts are over the top!! Will be sure to visit again when we are in the area. Gorgeous historic home kept up lovingly. Fabulous start to our honeymoon 5 on February 18, We started our honeymoon here and loved it.
