

Chapter 1 : Serenade of the Seas Deck 8 Deck Plan Tour

Find Serenade of the Seas' deck plans. Learn about the ships size, staterooms, and public areas. The deck plans are great tools to understand the stateroom locations and get an idea of the cruise ship's layout before booking your cruise.

The only difference in the subcategories is usually location on the ship. The detail above shows subcategory color, category name, and subcategory name. For detailed information, mouse over a cabin on the deck plans and a pop up window will appear. You will find diagrams, pictures and information about that cabin category including square footage and features. Royal Caribbean uses a number followed by letter to denote the type of cabin. Cabins are ranked from the lowest number first to the highest number and also from the lowest letter first to the highest letter. Therefore a category that begins with 1 is consider a better cabin choice than one that begins with 3. The type of cabin is defined by the letter that appears after the number. Letters Q and R define a spacious inside cabin that is good for families. Letter T defines a promenade view stateroom. Letters U,V,W define a interior cabin. Spacious oceanview cabins are defined by letter K. Panoramic oceanview cabins are defined with the letters P and L. Letters M, N defines a Oceanview cabin. Letter S defines a boardwalk view cabin. Family balconies are defined by the letter A. Spacious balconies are defined by the letter B. Regular balcony cabins use the letters C,D,E,F. A Boardwalk view balcony uses the letters I,J. The following is a listing of all the cabins we have pictures or videos for on this deck for this ship and also on the sister ships. Links for cabins pictures are a membership feature and are limited on the public site.
