User Reviews and Testimonials While I started to notice a positive change while using Manifestation Miracle, I wanted to find out what other people had to say about the program. After spending a good portion of my afternoon on the Internet, reading reviews, I discovered that most people were pleased with the program. Indrawati feels more in control of her life and has noticed a significant change in less than a month. Roger has just started the program but has already noticed some changes. Mats was a bit skeptical at first but has continued to use the program and learn more. Check out what Mats has to say: Alternatives to Manifestation Miracle Even though there is overwhelming support for Manifestation Miracle and I have noticed a positive change in my life, there are other programs that may be a better fit for you. This program is designed to be used 15 minutes a day and see significant changes within 21 days. This program has fewer materials, like workbooks, and is designed to be used on-the-go. Click or tap here to learn more about 15 Minute Manifestation. Much like Manifestation Miracle, the program includes a guide, videos, and audio materials as well as bonuses. Click or tap here to learn more about Thought Elevators. Royal Numerology is quite different from Manifestation Miracle but is a good introduction to numerology readings. At Royal Numerology you are greeted by Aiden Powers, a master numerologist. You answer a few questions in a chat-like setting and you are given your Expression number based upon your biggest worry such as love or money. After you receive a few details about your number, you are asked to enter your birthdate. You will receive a reading via email within a day. Does It Really Work? Your dream life is waiting for you. Having success and happiness in life is not hard to attain, but it can be one of your greatest struggles in life, particularly if you are filled with negativity and self-doubt. Manifesting your dreams can be challenging, and Manifestation Miracle can give you the boost and support you need to get started and continue on a life-changing journey. After reading my Manifestation Miracle review, you should be ready to take control of your life and be ready for some major changes for the better.

Chapter 2 : VAMPIRE ! CUSTOM CONJURED MONEY VAMPIRE! EXTREME WEALTH DESTINY ITEM!

*Simply Tarot wealth love destiny [Amanda Hall] on www.nxgvision.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers. Paperback book with CD rom- includes box with 78 Tarot cards easy to follow and help you fulfill your destiny.*

The Fool 0 The Fool: It stands for a fresh start, a spontaneous and an unbiased openness. It is an expression of playful recklessness, carelessness and joy of life. It shows us that we are a new area of life and wonder without fixed expectations, and often without prior knowledge of having entered it. A Foolish or a wise and humble insight to which we can arrive at after a long and often arduous search. The fool is the rogue and the flail in the way Til Eulenspiegel embodied, as well as the only honest adviser in the court as the alter ego of the king. In any case, he lives entirely in the present, an expression of openness and honesty of spontaneity, standing ready to make new experiences. Whether this attitude stems from our refusal to be more grown up, or from worldly insight and spiritual maturity, it can only be judged outside of the card. The fool always indicates a refreshing experience, although sometimes chaotic, even if he falls he falls on his feet, which means he is in no real danger.

The Magician 1 The Magician: It stands for a time in which, we masters, even encounter difficult problems and challenges and a sharpened sense of awareness, of life and of alert intelligence success arises. Although this card represents the strength of the conscious forces, it shows us not to neglect the sensitivity of the unconscious forces. On the contrary, the extraordinary power, influence, and effectiveness, which are indicated by the Mage, are based on the mystery of a profound harmony between the conscious and the unconscious. The resulting inner certainty can move mountains. It is the key to the mysterious truth that eludes the grasp of the logically thinking mind. Her bright side is an expression of patience, understanding, forbearance, kindness and willingness to forgive, and is focused on helping, healing and how her power over the unconscious forces can help others. The dark side, however, the archetype of "dark sister "the witch uses her mental to seduce, paralyze or even damage others. Often in Tarot interpretation, their friendly and helpful side is stressed and is traditionally considered to be one of the three protection cards. Christian mythology corresponds with this in the same way as one is considered protected when under the watchful eye of the virgin.

The Empress 3 The Empress: It thus stands for vitality, fertility, growth and birth of the new. It is the inexhaustible source of all life, which indicates our creative potential and our ability to absorb momentum and thus to draw up new life. That is on a physical level, growth and fertility, on a psychological level of understanding of ideas and inventiveness in the field of consciousness and increasing knowledge. The continual birth of the new means both the constant change in our life and the need to endure the pain of childbirth.

The Ruler 4 The Ruler: He shows our desire for independence from the contingencies of nature in all its unpredictability. To match our urge to civilize the world with which we build homes, heating and air conditioning systems, to protect us against heat and cold and wet, cars and aircraft in order to overcome distances easier and faster than walking, and schools to ensure education. The ruler shows both our sense of order, sobriety, discipline, responsibility, and pragmatic course of action. He also shows exaggerations in the form of rigidity, deadness, perfectionism and ambition for power. This understanding has a lot to say for itself, because the trust forces expressed by him refer to our assurance as well as to trust in a deep sense of our personal life and in our future. This shows the way of ethics and virtue and stands for the personal intentions originating from our moral basic values.

The Lovers 6 The Lovers: It points to a great love experience which leads us but also the knowledge of the mind that is associated with this step, a necessary decision: This step leads to an overwhelming experience that shows "The Lovers". This card used to be, "The decision called". It may also indicate necessary decisions that have little or nothing to do with love. In such cases, it means that we are asked to choose with a full heart. The themes stressed by this card, can be determined in the context of the question. In any case, it means the big unconditional "yes. He shows that we free ourselves from the closed sphere and go our own way. Because of, the desire for independence, ambition, the search for the lost paradise or simply our craving for recognition perhaps is the propelling force. The card is the only tarot card which shows the departure of full confidence and joy. In all other cases resigning to feelings of gravity and fear are marked. Here, is about pressing forward and risk taking. The card shows highly developed skills driving the car , but also a lack of experience entering an unknown world. Therefore, it must also be understood as a warning not to overestimate your own strength, not to be too confident and euphoric and a sign that we still have a lot to learn. The Force 11 The Force: As there is also a lot of emphasis based on the mystery of a deep inner strength and harmony. The great influence is the magician in harmony with conscious and unconscious forces such as vitality, courage and passion which drives the expression of this card and of civilized people to reconcile with their animal nature. In the myth, this is described impressively in the friendships between Gilgamesh and Enkidu his previously angered opponents. In this way We are not only these primitive forces but, also excess powers which we have used up to now to suppress these instincts. The Hermit 9 The Hermit: He marks the introverted life phase in which we shelter ourselves from foreign influence, and steer away from the everyday bustle and focus on ourselves. The Hermit stands for significant experiences in which we can recognize who we are, what we want, and how to get there. He combines two valuable extremes in himself: Wrongfully this card is feared by many people because his qualities are misunderstood, fear of loneliness and abandonment. Those who follow the call of the Hermit are enriched and find clarity, strength and the joyful experience of being their own. Destiny 10 The Destiny: On one level the card shows the situations in which we have at first no influence over. The downturn of the card shows that our plans simply do not want to succeed. The wheel of time show us that it is time to realize our plans. In this case the cards in the remaining places can give valuable tips, like how we can reach the other, climbing up the side of the wheel. Destiny stands for happy, pleasant and astonishing twists. Justice 8 The Justice: It stands for clear, objective knowledge, for conscious and decided judgment, for incorruptibility, balance and fairness and shows us that we are right. At an ordinary level it shows that we experience the environment like our echo and are confronted in the good just like in the bad with the results of our own actions: They are recognized and rewarded accordingly, but when we try to achieve by questionable means we fail. This card pushes a high degree of self-responsibility. It shows that nothing will be withheld from us, but that we have to do it alone and even bear the responsibility. Through thorough examination however, lies an outer immobility, this enforced silence both necessary and opportunistic offers a profound grasp of what we now and a change of our view of the world and the way we experience it. The passiveness to which we are condemned in such phases can sometimes be a sign of disease and will be displayed by the card. The experience expressed by the hanged man say CG Jung: Which signifies, on one hand an apparent difficulty but, on the other hand a unique situation which requires planning and sometimes a large strain. Death 13 The Death: He is also a pioneer for the new, what is to come, the card itself, however we see at first as the end. It may well be that this is the long awaited liberating in that we are looking for but, obviously with this card comes some of our most painful experiences. In contrast to the 10 swords that are arbitrary and also indicate a premature end, this cards always stands for the natural end and means that it is time to let go of something. Wrongfully Death is one of the most feared cards. Most people do not understand it, interpret it as the herald of the new and that it will bring us a deep experience of parting and of life related experiences. Moderation 14 The Moderation: It embodies the healthy contrast to the card following in the tarot game, the Devil, which is excess, harmony, balance, serenity and peace of mind are all signs of moderation. This card shows blissful experience, health and inner balance, to treat ourselves well and to stand in harmony with our environment. A corresponding matter to this card can also mean healing and recovery. The Devil 15 The Devil: The common experience marked by him lie in dependence, lack of will, failure of good intentions and actions that violate our convictions. The Devil corresponds to the dark side of many Tarot cars: Compared with the Magician, he is the black magician, He is the dark side of the High Priestess, the hypocritical and the materialistic counterpart of the High Priest. The struggle for power and soullessness of the Lovers. The corrupt and self-righteous side of justice. He embodies unrestrained greed for strength, in contrast to Moderation. He is the ruler over large parts of the lunar landscape. The Devil appears to us, of course, mostly in an enticing form. The card show that we are playing with fire and hell! You must pay attention and not burn your fingers. At a deeper level it means that we have come into a sphere of question with our own dark side in reach. The Tower 16 The Tower: Those are just structures and dimensions which are too small and close. It can affect our conviction and basic principles in life as well as safety thinking in aspects of job-related and financial issues, even friendships and other relationships. In general, surprising experiences or a sudden inspiration is what breaks down the life concept.

This is Arcanum No. They teach that there is a time for quiet preparation, for solitary accumulation or gestation. During such times we are able to replenish and gather our strength, our desires and ideas, in preparation for the first leap into action. The more receptive we are, the more we shall accumulate, in the different ways suggested by the four suits: Relaxation and pottering around, preparatory training or exercises, skills development, performance rehearsal 2 of Swords: Sleeping on a problem, waiting for new insight, doing preparatory research, allowing time for reflection or data-collection 2 of Cups: Developing friendly relations but as yet only acquaintanceship, politeness, diplomatic reserve, deepening of feelings held within 2 of Coins: Physical rest and good sleep, saving money, forming new muscles, pregnancy, basic self-nurturing. Or having been interacting via social media, its time to physically meet someone. This is Degree 3 in the Tarot, represented by Arcanum No. The energy is erupting for the first time, without prior experience or specific purpose. It is a joyful release and the first active step, suggested by the various 3s as: Living spontaneously or acting on impulse without a pre-established plan, physical release after resting, starting a job or journey 3 of Swords: Initial presentation of new ideas, turning imagination or research into a first draft, speculative opening of conversation, garrulous speech 3 of Cups: First meeting with a new lover, socializing and lively encounters, making new friends, uninhibited emotional expression 3 of Coins: Making a purchase or a sale, an initial investment, starting production or manufacture, reaping early gains, conception or birth of a child. This is the stage of a seed having grown into a plant. The plant is firmly rooted in the earth and remaining stable so as to engender further growth at the next, 5th stage. Even existing stability depends upon constant flow, renewal or replenishment. With this proviso, 4s represent being anchored in the material world, comfortable with surrounding laws and conditions. We are well-organised and grounded, healthy in body and spirit. Tarot 4 energy thus protects us, our loved ones and what belongs to us. The four suits show us the four cornerstones of material stability: Having a routine, working steadily, persevering with a job or project, using a methodical approach to creativity, regular habits of action 4 of Swords: Exercise of logic, systematic or analytical thought processes, planning ahead, having a policy, being conservative or constant in views and opinions 4 of Cups: Bonding with others in family, team or group, religious solidarity, mutual trust and care, feelings of safety and calm, emotions kept well-controlled 4 of Coins: Maintenance of security, staying healthy and strong, keeping a well-ordered house or stock of material possessions, financial stability. Degree 5 then, can be likened to a plant at the transitional stage of creating a bud. Thus a way is opened for reaching into a new realm. The Pope, Arcanum No. He infuses his students with a new ideal. He serves as a bridge or mediator between their realm of Earthy stability, the lower Degrees up to Degree 4, and the higher, Heavenly realm of Degrees 6 through 9. The four suits variously represent this stage in our daily affairs of opening up to horizons beyond the familiar, material and rational: Go further afield with projects and journeys, constructively take risks, experiment with new practices beyond the tried and tested, seek new experience to satisfy desire or temptation 5 of Swords: Be open-minded and willing to countenance new theories, ideas or beliefs, investigate and do research, think outside the box, take studies to a new level, seek out new knowledge 5 of Cups: Feel excitement, be romantic and adventurous with dating and courting, explore your feelings in the company of lover or friends, become passionate about a spiritual path or an article of faith 5 of Coins: Be enterprising in commercial ventures, use new products or technologies, innovate, stretch yourself in physical achievement, branch out from the base of operations, refurbish or redesign familiar territory. What remains clear though, is the interplay of emotions being outwardly expressed. The context is one of doing, having or getting what one loves, enjoys or desires. To what are we attracted? With whom or what do we feel passionately at union with? This preoccupation with beauty and enjoyment manifests itself in the four suits of Degree 6 as: Find creative outlets in movement, performance, pleasurable work, do what you love and love what you do, be playful or graceful, enjoy fun and games and activities in nature 6 of Swords: Cultivate the intellectual or artistic appreciation of beauty, find pleasure in thinking or reading in solitude, enjoy meetings for discussing or hearing ideas 6 of Cups: Enjoy a mutually devoted friendship or family connection, cultivate love and affection in romance, be happy in the company of a kindred spirit or soulmate 6 of Coins: Enjoy physical pleasure associated with comfort and luxury, care for your personal image and style, cultivate a beautiful home, appreciate fine clothing, cooking, gardens or anything available to the senses. Arcanum 7 represents this stage as The Chariot pulled by strong horses and steered by a purposeful driver. All the 7s of the Minor Arcana likewise indicate strong, dynamic and benevolent action in the world. Spirit and matter are united so as to act powerfully in loving ways. Instead of being cathartic and explosive as at Degree 3, action is now mature and focussed. The four suits show this as: Doing writing, teaching or lecturing based on intelligent research and learning, putting intellect at service to the world, making intelligent decisions, thinking analytically or very creatively 7 of Cups: Serving others rather than oneself, acting in humanitarian ways, being a dispenser of loving kindness, thriving in relationship, creating joy and good feelings all around 7 of Coins: Generating wealth for the good of all, maintaining a large estate or a strong athletic body, investing money wisely, running a business profitably and benevolently. It graces the tree in full ripeness and perfection of growth. There is no longer any improvement possible, nothing to be added or taken away. Likewise, each of the four suits presents us with a different aspect of receptive perfection: Key concepts for each suit would include: Perfect concentration for purity of action, egoless focus on the job at hand, effortless effort, being in a Taoist flow, divine timing and synchronicity 8 of Swords: Emptying the mind through quiet time and meditation, being receptive to intuition, channelling higher intelligence 8 of Cups: Being selfless and humble, considering the welfare of others, showing empathy and compassion, feeling gratitude and unconditional love 8 of Coins: Living hygienically, tuning into nature, opening to abundance, being nourished by organic food, keeping healthy through holistic preventative medicine. This equates to Degree 9 in the Tarot, represented by Arcanum No. At this stage there is major transition, with a whole cycle coming to an end. This is a natural and positive development but also a kind of crisis. Work on a new construction is on the way but as yet there can only be withdrawal, letting go, taking leave or bringing to an end an old project or situation. A seed leaves the old plant and enters the ground. From this a new organism will start to grow, going through the whole process all over again. This stage of one cycle changing into another is represented by Degree 10 in The Tarot. At this stage there may be fulfilment, stasis and anticipation all at the same time. One cycle merges into another or there is a pause between the old and the new. The 10s in the four suits carry a wide range of possible meanings, such as:

Read on to see what psychic gifts will be endowed unto his new and privileged friend. Do not doubt the intense and charismatic power of the Sanguine. There are only a handful and this is your golden opportunity to secure this Magnificent Vampire. This Vampire Conjuring has been professionally appraised at: General Attributes of our Vampiric Collection: Please continue to read down further. These attributes apply to all Vampire Entities that WE provide you with. Please be careful about buying Vampires from less reputable sources. We always provide instructions and advice and documentation. And anytime you need extra counseling, we are always there to help. We all have met or at least heard of those individuals who draw to themselves wealth, success, admirers, and opportunities of all types. Unless they are using other forms of Magick, these people generally have a naturally higher concentration of Vampyric energy. So, as you see, we all have Vampyric possibilities. In fact Vampires are the most incredible Shape-Shifters ever known. They have a tremendously rich history, and can manifest in human shape for many lifetimes consecutively--thus the legend of the Immortal Vampire. All at once your senses are magnified,electric. You feel exhilarated and somehow extra "alive. You sniff at the air, and with cat-like ability you are enveloped in the heady sweet aroma of Jasmine. Delectable, heady, you feast with your new senses. Now you rise from your bed, naked, unembarrassed, released from guilt, unencumbered by petty human limitations. Cunning and in Control. For once a Predator rather than Prey. You could seduce, you could convince, you could control any out-come. Then as quickly as it came, the feeling subsides and you suddenly feel chilled and embarrassed standing there with your extra 10 pounds of fat. You lie there for a moment trying to somehow recapture that magnificent feeling, but to no avail. You yawn, plump your pillow and lie there thinking about the drudgery that tomorrow will bring. The mountain of bills, the stupid job, the ignorant boss, the loveless partner, Blah, blah.. What was it that could change your basic nature so suddenly and in such a seductive and pleasurable way? And then why did it go? This phenomena is known as Vampyric Osmosis. And then after this fortuitous visit was over, the energy quickly dissipated. Friends, let me ask you this question. As soon as I acquired these vessels I secured one for myself, and my life has changed so very completely. I have always been prone to "living in my head" and not engaging in life as much as some do. I feel no more guilt or anxiety. What your Vampire will do for you as a Wish-Granting type entity. What your Vampire will "gift" to your own psyche and library of powers. A Vampire does not really see things as good and bad, wrong and right in the way that we have been taught to. A Vampire uses its impeccable and supernatural instincts to judge each situation on its own merit. Your Vampire will also bring you great wealth within a short period of time. So the first thing your Vampire will do is get you out of the humdrum life-style and place you in a more appropriate position. Your Vampire will also analyze you and your body and see if there is anything that needs immediate attention. If there is, it will be fixed. Shortly after I acquired my own Vampire I was miraculously cured of a long term "female" problem that no doctors could come close to resolving. Spells would work in the short term, but the condition would return within a few days. I guessed it must have been something I was doing, some unknown habit or sensitivity to something that was causing the affliction. You will find that--at will-- you can turn your senses on to Super-Turbo mode. This is more delightful, exhilarating, exciting and beneficial than I can even begin to explain!!! This includes improved vision, hearing, health, life-energy, chi, sense of well being, euphoria, sexual pleasure, and countless other benefits. All of these Supernatural powers will manifest in you. This is a very exciting aspect of owning a Vampire. I have even begun to be able to levitate! And last night while I was meditating I use candle meditation I easily moved the flame with my mind! I myself have wondered about possibly owning more than one Vampire. Get on with it! You will see the Options Section at the top when you add this Vessel to your shopping cart. This Vessel is of the highest caliber imaginable, and this extra little touch will send its Magick into Turbo-Charged! This type of Personal Energy Alignment would cost a small fortune elsewhere.
