Engaged Encounter is an international marriage preparation course approved by the Catholic Church worldwide. It is a weekend - a time for you to be together - to talk honestly about your future lives.

Comments Singapore is known for being one of the safest countries in the world. However, nothing or no place is perfect. Enter the cheekopek pervert. We see stories of cheekopeks on our news feeds every so often. There was also the instance of a man trying to film a woman secretly on the MRT. While some cases make the news and make headlines, many other instances of sexual harassment go unreported and are left untold. Only 3 of the 21 people asked said they had never had such an experience. This article contains information about sexual harassment which may be triggering or uncomfortable. There was a middle-aged man who looked a bit pai kia, sitting opposite me at another table. He kept his fanny pack on, took his time to fish out his mobile phone and put it on the table before opening a book to read with just one hand. No problem with that. But I looked up a few times and found it funny that he was reading his book upside down. A few minutes later, a library makcik tapped my shoulder and asked me to follow her. I glared at him and he stopped. Back then, the crowds at Orchard Road on Christmas eve were overwhelming. There were policemen stationed along the streets for crowd control. There were even barricades to prevent people from spilling onto the roads. We were all having a lot of fun. Then there was this group of men who came up for our free hugs and photos. But when these men posed for the photos, they put their arms tightly around me and they had their hands on the sides of my breasts. It really sickened me that they were taking advantage of this jolly occasion to molest me. It was extremely packed then, so nobody could really see what we were each doing. I shook it off as we were there to have fun. He always gave off this suspicious vibe. I often saw him recording his targets on his phone too. There was this one time when I was standing facing the exit doors of the bus, and there was a lower secondary school boy in front of me - the Bishan Gay seemed to have a thing for lower secondary boys, maybe because they wear short pants. Nearing one of the bus stops, the Bishan Gay walked up to that exit door, smirking at the boy as he did so. When he stepped out, he just stood there facing us, smirking while eyeing the secondary school boy up and down. He stared at the boy all the way, even when the doors closed and the bus drove off. It was so creepy and I felt sorry for that boy. We got nervous as we were still quite far away from home and it was late at night. It became very obvious that he was stalking us, so we made our way to this mama shop nearby. We made rounds in there hoping that we would shake him off, but no, he followed us out. By then, he had followed us for quite a long time and we were getting really scared. It was a scary experience. I was molested twice at an event, both times by foreigners. It happened really quickly and both guys touched my butt. I went through a terrible break up and my good friend, who happened to be a guy, offered to be a listening ear. Since I saw him as a good friend and really needed to talk to someone about it, I headed over to his hostel to look for him. I cried a lot and got very tired. He asked me if I wanted to lie down to rest for awhile, and I did. As I was resting on the bed, I felt a hand going up my pants. I felt so violated. When I shifted, he adjusted his position and pretended nothing happened. There were a lot of people around but no one helped or said anything. If it were me today, I would have kicked him. I just walked in and closed the gate, and I saw him scurrying away while zipping his pants. As usual, everyone on the train was standing close to each other. Then at one point, I felt something brushing against my ass. I looked up and saw the reflection on the glass of the train door. I tried moving away, but he kept coming closer every time I did. This experience made me afraid to take the train for awhile really. I felt super disgusted and violated. Someone touched my butt and I thought it was by accident since it was so crowded. But this guy just kept moving closer to me and continued stroking my butt. Every time I moved away, he followed. At one point, he started pushing his body up against mine. I felt his boner pressed up against my butt, then he started grinding me. I felt so disgusted. I turned around and took a good look at him but he just had his eyes on the stage. My friend was so angry on my behalf and just kept glaring at him up and down. Then she pulled me to get the security on patrol. I told them what happened but by then, the guy was long gone. My friend was relentless though. She remembered what he wore and searched through the sea of people. We eventually found the pervert and called the police on him. It took a while for the whole thing to sink in that I was physically harassed and molested. But when it really happened, it got me in a state of shock. Not many of us will know how to react when caught in this unfortunate position ourselves, so next time you notice someone being harassed or targeted by a pervert, do your part and help them out!

It is not a counseling course, neither are there formal lectures, nor is it based on group discussions. The weekend is designed for private discussions between a couple. Only two of the seven are sacraments of service, directed towards the salvation of others: Matrimony and Holy Orders. Most people understand that it takes years of preparation to become a priest. There is a lot of overlap in what the Catholic Church expects of a priest and a matrimonied couple. Most people do not think it takes any preparation to be married. The reality is, it takes a lot to be married, even more to become a sacrament. The forty four hours of the weekend helps to prepare you for that. History History The story of Worldwide Marriage Encounter began in Spain in when a young priest, Fr Gabriel Calvo, began developing a series of conferences for married couples. Their focus was on the development of an open and honest relationship within marriage and learning to live out a sacramental relationship in the service of others. In , Fr Calvo presented the conferences as a weekend retreat to 28 couples in his native Barcelona. Marriage Encounter was on its way! By the summer of , 50 couples and 29 priests were presenting weekends in USA. In addition, the renewal of the Sacrament of Matrimony was a strong focus, as a means for renewing the Catholic Church. Thus developed Worldwide Marriage Encounter. As a result, Worldwide and National Marriage Encounter both exist today as two different expressions of the original weekend developed by Fr Gabriel Calvo. Expansion out from USA In , American couples and priests travelled to Belgium and later to England and overseas expansion grew rapidly. WWME is now offered in numerous languages and dialects in 83 countries. The first Weekend was held on 6 - 8 April at the Ambassador Hotel for 25 couples and two priests. Financial assistance came from the Encounter communities of Canada and Australia. India had been given the responsibility to reach out to Singapore. India, and later the Philippines, continued to send couples to present subsequent Weekends in Singapore until local couples could take over. In this gathering momentum launched Engaged Encounter Weekends for couples planning to marry, and the Mandarin-speaking Weekends followed soon after. Solving individual marital problems has never been the goal of Marriage Encounter. Instead, during the Weekend, a husband and wife are given the opportunity to share the emotions that so often are kept buried inside. They are taught how to make such communication a part of everyday life. Marriage Encounter emphasises the beauty of belonging totally to one another. The seed to spread of Marriage Encounter to other parts of China was thus planted.
