A fourth film, Toy Story 4, is in production and set for release on June 21, Toy Story was the first feature-length film to be made entirely using computer-generated imagery. The third film in the series is the third highest-grossing animated film and the 18th highest-grossing film of all time. It also became the third animated film in history to be nominated for the Academy Award for Best Picture, following Beauty and the Beast and Up. Toy Story [edit] Main article: Toy Story Toy Story, the first film in the franchise, was released on November 22, Determined to set things right, Woody attempts to save Buzz, and both must escape from the house of the next-door neighbor Sid Phillips, who likes to torture and destroy toys. Toy Story 2 Toy Story 2, the second film in the franchise, was released on November 24, John Lasseter reprised his role as director. The plot involves Woody getting stolen by a greedy toy collector named Al McWhiggin. Toy Story 2 was not originally intended for release in theaters, but as a direct-to-video sequel to the original Toy Story, with a minute running time. Toy Story 3 Toy Story 3, the third film in the franchise, was released on June 18, , nearly 11 years after Toy Story 2 was. It was the first Toy Story film not to be directed by John Lasseter although he remained involved in the film as executive producer, but by Lee Unkrich, who edited the first two films and co-directed the second. The plot focuses on the toys being accidentally dropped off at a daycare center while their owner, Andy, is getting ready to go to college. The film contains over new characters, according to Pixar. But when Andrew, Pete, Lee and I came up with this new idea, I just could not stop thinking about it. It was so exciting to me, I knew we had to make this movie”and I wanted to direct it myself. Potato Head, [27] though on April 6, , it was announced that he had died before he was able to record any lines for the film. As a result, the original script written by Jones and McCormack was scrapped. They did not necessarily follow the continuity from Toy Story, taking place before, during and after the events of the first film. Television specials[edit] Pixar has also developed two minute Toy Story television specials. *Toy Story of Terror! A Halloween-themed minute television special, titled Toy Story of Terror! Potato Head, Rex, Mr. After one of the toys goes missing, the others begin to search for it, but they too are picked off one by one. Jones, who has been trained to steal the toys of his guests so that they can be sold via the Internet. As a result, Bonnie recovers her toys, and her mom calls in the police, who then presumably arrests the manager for theft. Michael Giacchino, who composed the music for the first special, returned. Pricklepants, Don Rickles as Mr. Another short, [51] titled Mythic Rock, was in development in but was never released. Hawaiian Vacation Toy Story Toons: Hawaiian Vacation is a Pixar animated short directed by Gary Rydstrom. The short features characters from the Toy Story series and takes place after the events of Toy Story 3. Small Fry film Toy Story Toons: Partysaurus Rex Toy Story Toons: Partysaurus Rex, the third of the series of animated shorts, was released with the theatrical 3D re-release of Finding Nemo. Directed by Mark Walsh with music composed by electronic artist BT, the short involves Rex getting left in the bathroom and making friends with bath toys. It was the highest-grossing domestic film in, [57] and the third highest-grossing animated film at the time. It was the third highest-grossing film of In addition, Toy Story 3 had the highest opening day gross for an animated film on record. Toy Story 3 stayed at the 1 spot for the next weekend. The film had the second highest opening ever for an animated film. It was the highest-grossing film of, both domestically and worldwide.*

I was the perfect age for this game, just about six years old, when it was released and I remember being so excited getting it along with the Animated Storybook: Toy Story game in my Easter basket that year. Man did it bring back memories I remembered almost every detail like no time had passed at all. If you grew up playing the game as well, be prepared for some major nostalgia below Each area has three activities to play for a total of nine activities throughout, even though the cover of the game says eight. In this card game, the objective is to strategically play your cards to stay under the limit number seen on Etch , while still trying to get the opponent to go over. In other words, whoever places down the card sending the sum total of the cards over the limit number is the loser. In level one the limit is 39, in level two the limit is 69 and in level three the limit is This next game is a "Marble Art" activity with Rex. This is a fun activity that I remember spending lots of time playing. Young kids will absolutely love it! The object here is exactly what the name says The first here of the three activities is "Slimon"-a classic"Simon Says" type game with a slimy space alien twist. The object is simple yet can be challenging: The aliens spray five times in level one, ten times in level two and 20 times in level three. Also, like with "Five in a Row", you have the option to play either against the computer or a friend. Tired from all that memorization? There you can watch six of the most iconic and memorable scenes from the film! Lastly, head into the inner workings of the "crane game" for this 3D puzzle activity called "Fusion Flow. The game does get more challenging as you move up through the second and third difficulty levels. I remember this activity, the "Mutant Toy Creator", was one of my favorites. Here you can assemble your own disturbing "mutant toy" by choosing from a variety of different bodies, heads, arms and legs The possibilities are endless. Choose instruments and sound effects from his sound library and drop them into the 12 empty windows. From there, you can add all sorts of effects such as adjusting the pitch and tempo or adding reverb. Press play to hear your masterpiece. There are four categories of puzzles with four puzzles within each category. Well there we have it! The Toy Story Activity Center Want to really trigger some memories?
