I read the book Summer Reading is Killing Me by Jon Scieszka. I liked this book because it has a lot of humor. Read more. Published on April 16, Rajiv.

Plot[edit] For his seventh birthday, Joe receives a mysterious blue book known only as "The Book" from his magician uncle and namesake, "Joe the Magnificent". The only way they are able to return to present-day Brooklyn, New York is to find The Book again within whatever time period they are in. The Time Warp Trio faces lots of challenges during their travels and their learning of how to use The Book. This section describes a work or element of fiction in a primarily in-universe style. Please help rewrite it to explain the fiction more clearly and provide non-fictional perspective. While his penchant for keeping The Book with him and experimenting with it results in many of their adventures, his talent for magical tricks also helps them out of many tough situations. He is in a relationship with a girl, named Sophie. He wears thick glasses he is self-conscious about being a nerd and is lactose intolerant. Sam is also wary of time travel ; he is convinced their doom is imminent every time they open The Book. An amateur inventor, he is told by Freddi that he will invent something very important in the future though it is not revealed what. He can be Passive aggressive at times. Frederick "Fred" â€” A friend of Joe and Sam. Fred is a sports fan who is headstrong, sometimes to the point of idiocy. Fred is the most interested in using The Book for material gains, whether hunting for treasure or patenting future technology. He has a bullying older brother named Mike. He originally sent The Book to Joe, since he could not make it work - he performs his own time travel by means of an enchanted pocket watch. He believes in the Tooth Fairy and the Easter Bunny. Jodie is usually concerned with her looks or anyway to make herself more comfortable in any situation, yet she looks out for her friends as they do for her. Because she and Fred have pretty stubborn personalities, they usually butt heads at some point when the other is around or attempting to take charge. She is sometimes called Jo or J. Unlike her great grandpa, Samantha is not as erratically apprehensive whenever she finds herself back in time, even when faced with a dilemma. Samantha owns a time-traveling pocket watch that belonged to Sam. She is sometimes called Samm or Samza. She wears a baseball hat, as her great-grandfather did. Unlike her great grandfather she fears heights and bugs.
