How do I get a Texas Real Estate license? The current educational requirement is hours which is covered in six hour courses. For more information about the licensing process and the packages that we offer, please visit our How do I get a Texas Real Estate License? Does Champions offer a payment plan option? No, Champions offers students the choice between purchasing the courses independently or together as a package. Regardless of which method you choose, tuition must be paid in full at the time of enrollment. The individual courses that make up the packages are offered individually and can be purchased one-at-a-time as you move through the program. Keep in mind that purchasing the courses together in a package will always save you a little bit of money in the long run. Be sure to include your license number in the email. For this reason, it is imperative that you provide Champions with the correct license number when prompted. Providing the wrong license number may result in a delay of the reporting process or even the expiration of your license if the error is not caught in time. When can I schedule my state licensing exam? Once you submitted your license application, application fee, and class certificates, it can take up to 15 days to receive an approval letter from the Texas Real Estate Commission TREC. Your approval letter will include a special code that you will use to schedule your licensing exam with Pearson Vue. Exams are administered at testing centers located throughout the state of Texas. How does the online exam proctoring system work? Upon passing all of the required Topic Quizzes online, you will be able to select a Proctoring session for the exam. If you wish to take advantage of our online proctoring system and have the exam proctored from your home, select the "Live Remote" option a webcam is required from the first dropdown menu and then select a time slot from the second dropdown menu and click the "Submit" button. Once a selection has been made, you will receive an automated email containing a link that can be used to access the proctoring session during your selected time. Once you are successfully logged into the proctoring session, the Proctor will verify your ID and then unlock the exam. You will then be able to access the exam via the start button the "Class Information" screen and you will have two hours to work on it. If you do not finish the exam during that two hour session, your progress will be saved progress is saved after each set of 10 questions and you will need to schedule a new session to return and complete the exam.
