

Chapter 1 : The Gold Cadillac www.nxgvision.com

The Gold Cadillac, by Mildred D. Taylor, is one of a series of works of fiction in which the author explores African-American www.nxgvision.com her other books, The Gold Cadillac is told from the perspective of a young person and is a great book for younger readers.

A Literature-Based Curriculum discusses The Gold Cadillac along with three other powerful stories by Mildred Taylor which provides a solid foundation for an author study. Song of the Trees, Mississippi Bridge, and The Friendship have the same characters, allowing students to make intertextual links very easily. The Gold Cadillac has different characters but many of the same themes, fostering intertextual connections on a deeper level. Below you will find a synopsis, further reading materials, discussion topics, and reviews that you might find useful during your teaching of The Gold Cadillac. When the family leaves Ohio, the girls learn what it is to feel frightened because of the color of their skin. Their father is stopped by white police officers for no reason, taken into custody, and held for three hours. Taylor who was born in the state. Besides information about the author, it provides a list of her books. Penguin â€” The publisher provides another biography of Mildred D. The Infoplease website has compiled quick facts about Ohio including the origin of the states name. Mississippi Maps â€” This site provides access to many maps of Mississippi, ranging from views of the entire state to city maps and maps of the national parks. A Quest for Full Citizenship â€” This Library of Congress exhibit conducts the visitor on a splendid tour through time beginning with slavery and ending in the civil rights era. Facts are balanced with reproductions of historical documents, photographs, and drawings, bringing significant events and important people in African American history to life. Africans in America â€” On this site, an overview of each time period from to is given, followed by more in-depth discussions of various aspects of the era by scholars and historians. The site offers links to main events during the time, timelines, videos, and pictures. Board of Education exhibition talks about segregation, the education system, and what it meant for African Americans. Jim Crow Laws â€” Learn about the Jim Crow laws, segregation, and personal accounts by individuals who experienced those times. Big Theme Questions What is racism? In what ways does racist behavior hurt everyone in a community? Are there times when you should be silent about your beliefs, even if you feel you are right? Why or why not? Are laws always fair? What makes a law good or bad? What can individuals do about bad laws? What are the qualities of a true friend? How can a strong family help its members overcome obstacles in life? Outline of Lesson Plan Discussion Topics Writing Prompts The following section can be used to get discussions started in your classroom. It is based on the author study: The Lesson Plan includes blackline masters for the students that support the writing prompts. The writing prompts provided are meant as suggestions only. As students become more comfortable with the Book Club format, they will certainly have ideas and questions that go beyond the prompts. Book Club Reading Logs help students respond to literature and organize ideas as they participate in Book Club.

Chapter 2 : The Gold Cadillac by Mildred D. Taylor | www.nxgvision.com

The Gold Cadillac is a short, yet, satisfying book for anyone, any age to read. There is a black family that has done just fine most of their lives with their old Buick. The dad goes off one day, trades in the buick, and gets a brand spanking new gold cadillac.

Chapter 3 : Gold Cadillac Summary

The Gold Cadillac. by Mildred Taylor. Book Club: A Literature-Based Curriculum discusses The Gold Cadillac along with three other powerful stories by Mildred Taylor which provides a solid foundation for an author study.

Chapter 4 : Friendship and the Gold Cadillac by Mildred D. Taylor

DOWNLOAD PDF THE GOLD CADILLAC NOVEL

The novella The Gold Cadillac takes place around African Americans, especially those living in the South during this time, continued to be treated unfairly.

Chapter 5 : The Gold Cadillac - Children's Literature - Questions for Tests and Worksheets

The Gold Cadillac This book is great go get it. This book is about a a dad,a mom,two little girls and a sweet sweet sweet gold cadillac the two little girls Lois and.

Chapter 6 : The Gold Cadillac - Lexile® Find a Book | MetaMetrics Inc.

Everything you need to use Mildred Taylor's award winning novel, "The Gold Cadillac" effectively in your classroom! A no-prep standards based interactive notebook literature guide with follow-up reading response questions for every chapter as well as vocabulary, writing projects, activities and enrichment projects.

Chapter 7 : The Gold Cadillac (Audiobook) by Mildred D. Taylor | www.nxgvision.com

About The Gold Cadillac. Another powerful story in the Logan Family Saga and companion to Mildred D. Taylor's Newbery Award-winning Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry. A drive South becomes dangerous for 'lois and her family.

Chapter 8 : The Gold Cadillac - Essay

LibraryThing Review User Review - ShalynAdams - LibraryThing. This is a story of a black family living in the north who bought a gold Cadillac they were very proud of until they take a drive to the South and encounter racial prejudice.

Chapter 9 : - Gold Cadillac: Novel-Ties Study Guide by Mildred D. Taylor

The Gold Cadillac - Children's Literature - Questions for Tests and Worksheets You can create printable tests and worksheets from these The Gold Cadillac questions! Select one or more questions using the checkboxes above each question.