The author placed him at the table with Beth to keep the conversation between Tommy and Beth from moving too quickly. Simmons is described as a well-education student of history. We also meet him on page at his place of work. His job is a surprise to Tommy and meant to be a surprise to the reader. Why do their jobs surprise you? On page 55 before Tommy and Charles join a stickball game they leave their books and jackets between two cars, a Ford and a Hudson. Of course, since this is fiction, the author could have named any two cars " Buick, Chevrolet, Chrysler, or Cadillac. He chose to make one of the cars a Hudson because while it was a popular car in the time of the story, , Hudsons are no longer being manufactured. The author wanted the mention of the Hudson car to be a reminder to the reader that this is , not today. Tommy lives the Bronx. He could have been a New York Yankee fan, but by being a Dodger fan he reminds the reader that this story happened some time ago. How many more references can you find? On page Tommy has his first ride in a taxi cab. His parents do not have a car. The author first prepares the readers on page 2 for Mrs. Sarah who first appears on page 6 of the book is a European refugee. She makes the war in Europe personal for Tommy and Beth. The book ends in , with the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor. If you were to write a sequel to the book, what would you write. What would you have them doing in ? Why do you think the author made Danny wait until the middle of the next page to tell you the answer to the riddle? Have you ever had trouble finding something important? Why would someone take all those cakes, especially the wedding cake? When you read a mystery, do you pay close attention and try and find clues that might help you solve the mystery? Adler began writing this story he knew to put this clue at the very beginning of the story. He knew what would happen later. When you start a story, do you know how it will end? Were you surprised that on page 53 that Danny has a pocketful of cookie crumbs? Adler got the idea to write the Wedding Cake Mystery? Where do you get ideas for your stories? Have there been any turning points in your life? Take a look at the advertisements on pages 3 and What do those advertisements tell you about life here before the Civil War? How would you react if you saw those advertisements posted today? Why do you think he started the newspaper? How do you think the newspaper helped the cause of freedom? If you would start such a newspaper to what cause would it be devoted? Billy keeps telling Cam and Eric facts about animals. Do you know anyone who keeps telling you facts. excuse to call his parents. And today Andy wants to ask his parents if Tamika, his friend from school and next door, can move in with them. This is definitely not a good day for gerbil and other troubles. Just wait till Mom sees this mess. Rachel was standing by the open front door to the house. He hurried up the front walk to the house and looked in. The closet door was open. Coats, hats, scarves, gloves, umbrellas, and the morning newspaper were on the floor. We got on and off the bus together. How would I know? It was my teacher Ms. At school, preoccupied with thoughts of his pets on the loose, the boy offers "China" as the solution to a math problem. Such are the woes of Andy Russell, whom Adler author of the Cam Jansen books introduces in this jaunty novel, the first of a series. Displaying a knack for creating credible characters and amusing dialogue, Adler shapes a cast that youngsters will want to follow up on in future tales. Readers will likely be standing by when he does. Copyright Reed Business Information, Inc. This is the first in a series of books about Andy and his friends, a fact that will undoubtedly be good news to many young readers. Did you think he was joking? On page 6 Eric said he hoped Governor Zellner would sign his notebook. One of David A. Which friend do you plan to put in your next story?

We offer two one hour tours, one does the upper Lake and Scenic Trails, and the other starts at the Lower Entrance and includes all of the lower level features. For the upper tour you start at the cave entrance and descend 35 steps to the first landing. The Lake Trail goes to the left, and is the easiest trail, with only 17 steps. Then you go past two large flowstone formations, to the Mystery Spot. See cave popcorn here and plenty of fossils. To the right at the First Landing is the sand tunnel which comes out at the stairs to the Great Room. Heading straight will lead you along the Scenic Trail past the Enchanted Forest with columns, cave drapery and much more. Then you go up to the Moon Room, and learn about Moon Milk. Steps lead down to the Imagination Room where you can find the giant T-rex, Bullwinkle, and Squidwerd. There you can see the Wedding Cake, 50 year old stalactites and stalagmites, rimstone dams, and the Great Wall. The cave continues on but there are no formations because it is under the sandstone cap. The Primitive Trail is available here. The second tour takes you to the bottom levels of the cave. It starts at the lower entrance located in another sink hole. You follow a tunnel that winds through tight formations for about feet before emerging into the Great Room. Then to a mystery tunnel, and finally to the base of Goliath. This is the spot that Shelly Wolf was trapped in for over 8 hours in She and two others were exploring for more cave. In the Great Room there is a rock strewn area that offers the mystery of secrets below. We know this because when you toss 5 gallons of water at the spot, it gurgles and sloshes as the water goes down into an unexplored area. Also in the Great Room is the entry to the Alien Room. Here Scott has placed his Alien, AI, but the real alien is a large stalagmite that came from another part of the cave. Then a flight of grand steps lead you to the spectacular Palace Room. It is the largest room in the cave, and the most recently excavated by water, but has the oldest limestone. There is an area where weddings were performed by a previous cave owner, The room is decorated with beautiful ceiling formations, cave bacon, and the T-Rex that is our banner logo. It joins the Scenic Trail at the sand tunnel junction.
