What customers have to say about our Wedding Invitations November 5, Customize more! I chose the blue with gold, and they came out beautifully. The default gold text is light, but still legible. I would go back and change the colors to match the main color like a darker blue. Also, just playing around with the different settings to see what you like is the best way to get what you want. I made the cursive a little bigger and darker, and came out wonderful. I would repurchase, but just customize some more. I got them quickly and beautifully done. I ended up buying another set with matching enclosure cards for the reception. My daughter and I are very pleased with the quality and fast shipping. I would recommend them and Shutterfly to anyone planning a wedding or needing cards. When I got them I cried because they were exactly how they were online. So beautiful and the details were amazing! I could not be more happy with them! This experience was my first time using Shutterfly and I am amazed. I even ordered more products from them! How could you not?! Once ordered, they arrived quickly and perfect. Colors are just as the sample shows. Check this off the wedding list! Share the news with invitations that are the perfect prelude to your wedding.
