October 21 at 3: Voor Pepper ben ik op zoek naar een fijn nieuw t huis. Pepper heb ik als 8 jarige in maart gekocht van zijn eerste eigenaar. Na aankoop heb ik zijn ijzers eraf gehaald en mocht hij op de wei weer heerlijk paard zijn Zijn hoeven zijn door regelmatig bekappen van eendenbek naar een paar nette voeten gegroeid. Toch bleef hij gevoelig voor o. Ook fysiek is hij er beter en beter uit gaan zien. Pepper is een bijzonder vriendelijk en zachtaardig paard, erg sociaal naar mensen en andere paarden. Ik heb hem gekocht om er uiteindelijk ook alleen buiten mee te rijden maar ik heb gemerkt dat hij dat helemaal niet leuk vindt en ook niet graag doet. Dus zoek je een paard waar je alleen mee naar buiten kan, dan stop je hier met lezen.. Hij wordt gelukkiger wanneer hij met een ander paard of paarden mee op buitenrit mag gaan. Veel dingen vindt hij best nog wel spannend maar loopt wel door achter de billen van zijn voorganger. Als hij schrikt dan staat hij stil en gaat niet onder je vandoor. Zet je een ander paard voor hem dan loopt hij weer vrolijk door. Hij is niet super voorwaarts en heeft een erg relaxte stap, draf en galop. Hoewel bij extra aansporen hij buiten best snel in galop kan zijn. Door zijn fijne en eerlijke karakter kunnen kinderen en beginners met hem rijden. Met een gerust hart kan je hem weken stil laten staan om hem daarna weer vlot op te pakken. Ten tijde van zijn aankoop was hij een fervente luchtzuiger op de rand van zijn voerbak en voor mij geen reden hem niet te kopen. Geef je hem echter de mogelijkheid, dan heb je kans dat hij het weer gaat doen. Waar hij het tweede, derde of vierde paard is in de kudde, nooit alleen hoeft te staan en het hele jaar rond buiten mag lopen. Hij is gezond, elke weken bekapte en jaarlijks de tandarts op bezoek gehad. Ontwormd alleen als daar reden toe was na een positieve uitslag van mestonderzoek. Keuring toegestaan, kosten koper. Bij wederzijdse klik wil ik zijn nieuwe leefomgeving wel eerst gezien hebben eer hij verhuist. En mocht je ooit besluiten hem te verkopen dan zou ik het waarderen wanneer je mij als eerste benadert.

Expansion[edit] The magazine often featured a picture of Captain Billy in uniform, along with the comment This magazine is edited by a Spanish-American and World War veteran and is dedicated to the Fighting Forces of the United States and Canada. The publication, delivered in a page, saddle-stitched, digest-sized format, soon saw a dramatic increase in sales. The popularity of Whiz Bang peaked during the s. It continued into the s, but circulation slowed as readers graduated to the more sophisticated humor of Esquire , founded in It had an influence on many other digest-sized cartoon humor publications, including Charley Jones Laugh Book , which was still being published during the s. Since celebrity visitors came to the resort, Captain Billy had the road from Breezy Point into Pequot Lakes blacktopped at his own expense. Decorated with elk and deer skins, Fawcett House [6] has ten bedrooms and eight baths. The living room has a cathedral ceiling, a loft, a bar and a large field rock fireplace. Harry Truman was another Breezy Point guest. Captain Billy was quite a shot with a shotgun. He was on the American Olympic team at one time. He had some traps out there, so we did a little shooting with him. He had a couple of guests, one of whom was Dr. Joe Mayo, the son of Dr. Joe was killed a few years later in an automobile accident. He was the brother of Dr. Chuck Mayo who just retired from the Mayo Foundation. We did a little trap shooting at that time, but we went up there almost every night for dinner. We stopped at a barber shop at Brainerd going up, and he hit the jackpot in a machine in the lower lobby of the hotel. Then he hit the jackpot up at Breezy Point the same night. March of the magazines[edit] During the s, Fawcett and his sons established a line of magazines which eventually reached a combined circulation of ten million a month in newsstand sales. True Confessions alone had a circulation of two million a month. The flagship of Fawcett magazines was Mechanix Illustrated. Acquired by Time Inc. It was merged into Mechanix Illustrated at the end of That same year, the company launched Fawcett Comics , as recalled by circulation director Roscoe Kent Fawcett: I got us into the comic book business. The character they devised, Captain Marvel, was introduced in Whiz Comics 2 February, and quickly caught on, moving into his own title, Captain Marvel Adventures, early in The success prompted spin-off characters, beginning with Captain Marvel, Jr. The circulation of Captain Marvel Adventures continued to soar until it outsold Superman during the mids. Gold Medal Books Fawcett was also an independent newsstand distributor, and in , the company negotiated a contract with New American Library to distribute their Mentor and Signet titles. This contract prohibited Fawcett from becoming a competitor by publishing their own paperback reprints. In , Roscoe Fawcett wanted to establish a line of Fawcett paperbacks, and he felt original paperbacks would not be a violation of the contract. When these books successfully sailed through the contract loophole, Fawcett announced Gold Medal Books , their line of paperback originals. It was a revolutionary turning point in paperback publishing. When Bishop left after a year, he was replaced by William Charles Lengel , a veteran magazine editor, agent, short story author and novelist Forever and Ever, Candles in the Wind. Carroll was once described as "the Maxwell Perkins of Gold Medal. MacDonald and Kurt Vonnegut. Her best-selling novel, The Best of Everything, obviously drawn from her experiences at Fawcett and Gold Medal, was adapted for a film and a TV series. During her 26 years at Fawcett, Nevler became the editorial director in Writing about the demise of pulp magazines in The Dime Detectives, Ron Goulart observed, "Fawcett dealt another blow to the pulps when, in , it introduced its Gold Medal line. What Gold Medal specialized in was original novels. Some were merely sleazy, but others were in a tough, hard-boiled style that seemed somehow more knowing and more contemporary than that of the surviving pulps. Early Gold Medal authors included John D. My agent, Joe Shaw , asked me to expand it. I resisted, but complied. I hate puffing things. Everything can use cutting. But puffing creates fat. Gold Medal took it for their new line of originals. It was titled The Brass Cupcake. Sales soared, prompting Ralph Daigh to comment, "In the past six months we have produced 9., books, and people seem to like them very well. Barker, who claimed that paperback originals could "undermine the whole structure of publishing. Literary agent Donald MacCampbell stated that one publisher "threatened to boycott my agency if it continued to negotiate contracts with original cent firms. Now at that time you had to go through hardback. So I wrote I, the Jury and turned it in to E. It had been rejected by four different publishers, saying no, no, this is too violent, too dirty So Roscoe ordered a million copies, and that was unheard of! In , when their contract with NAL expired, Fawcett immediately began doing reprints through several imprints. Red Seal started April and published 22 titles before it folded a year later. The managing editor of Crest and Premier was Leona Nevler. In the early s, John D. I took three shots at it to get one book with a character I could stay with. That was in That launched the series. In , when we started the Crest line to reprint hardcover books, we extended this practice to what we offered for softcover rights. Giving the author a bigger share of the pie paid off handsomely.
