Having one good friend is already a great blessing, but a true BEST friend is absolutely the luckiest addition you can have in your life. A birthday should always be a special occasion for the celebrant. Unique Birthday Wishes For Friend 1. Enjoy every moment of your life. Originally posted by happy-wallpapers Life can be beautiful, but it can also be brief. No one ever knows how much time we all have to share with one another. Your best friend means a lot to you, which is why you should always want them to enjoy their life. Wishing you an awesome day with good luck on your way. Originally posted by gingerandpicklesprod How great would be to have a dear friend who will greet us like this on the special occasion of our birthday? We all worry about how the whims of fortune will impact us on a personal level. So it makes perfect sense to wish our best friend the very best luck on their birthday. Since our birthdays are the special anniversary of our entry into the world, what better day to receive the collective blessings of the universe? And to share that good fortune with those who love us. Originally posted by pinterest A birthday is a time for you to sit back, relax, and enjoy, my friend. All we have accomplished, gained, and lost in the previous year is lamented and celebrated on the anniversary of our birth. But it should also be a time of personal reflection and, hopefully, the perfect opportunity to celebrate and take pride in a year well lived, and a job well done. May you have all the joy your heart can hold. We all want our loved ones to experience a life of joy, and we treasure the joyful moments we can share together. This is especially true of our close friends, and our best friends certainly top that list. When we wish them all the best things in life, the joy, the smiles, the blessings that make life worth living, we are expressing the purest form of love for them. May your day be as beautiful as you. Originally posted by pinterest By sending this birthday wish to your friend, you can make them smile on this special day. Everyone appreciates a compliment, no more so than on their birthday. Your world is more beautiful because they are in it, and you share that beauty together. Originally posted by happy-wallpapers This old-fashioned illustration of birthday children speaks to the best wishes we offer to our friends, notably to our very best friends. They also wish for you to have a bright birthday, many good and loyal friends, and days of good health and good fortune now and in the future. It is a selfless proclamation of love and loyalty from one true friend to another. I looked for something sweet to send to you. On your birthday, I want to give you something special to let you know how much I care for you. How often do we find ourselves seeking the perfect gift to give to those we love? We wish we lived in a world where money meant nothing, where we could procure any gift we wished for our friends and loved ones without thought of price. Except, where our best friends are concerned we DO live in a world where money means nothingâ€¦ because the worth of a gift lies in the emotion of the giver and the quality of the recipient. In consideration of that, even the sweetest rose might doubt its worth when presented to the sweetest of best friends. On this wonderful day, a star of pure love appeared to be my gift. Originally posted by teraodesign A true friend is the only one who loves you sincerely. On your birthday, a star shines down on you: On your birthday you are wished all that you hope for. These are angels in the disguise of friendsâ€¦ Originally posted by refe99 Friends are precious, sometimes more than we would ever dare suspectâ€¦ if angels are the best, the brightest, and the most beautiful manifestations of pure love we can imagine, it truly says something that we consider our best friends to be their equal in worth and brilliance. When we express our fondest birthday wishes for a friend, we contact the angels in some small way: Late in the evening, far, far away, there is a glowâ€¦ Originally posted by somathread The light shed by the candles on your birthday cake is blinding because you are so old! So we laugh together at the very idea. But the true light that is shed on your birthday is the illumination shed by your inner self, by your generous spirit, by the warmth of your friendship. I am thankful for all of that, and because your friendship lights my way even in the darkest hour. As long as we are friends, I know I will always have your special light to guide my path and call me home. If you live to be , I hope I live to be minus 1 day.

Every person we hire is passionate about keeping the fairytale alive, and knows the characters inside and out. They are all variations on the same theme. And that was my daughter yesterday when Audrey of Wish Upon A Star aka Queen Elsa walked into her garden-variety bouncy house 4th bday party. She answered all my questions and was always warm, friendly, and helpful as I planned the party. The day of the party she and her team arrived and began set up. Elsa arrived and took over the party from there. And my daughter was ecstatic! The look on her face was truly priceless They really go above and beyond for the princess parties! The girls faces absolutely lit up when they saw Aurora and Maleficent, and they were sooo great playing with them too! Also the icing on the cake is their singing ability, she has such a beautiful voice, the girls were entranced. I would definitely book again, such a great value and it made our kids sooo happy! They even sound like the actual princesses! Which makes it easy for the kids to buy that this is really the character, not someone in a costume. But my favorite memory from the party was one 5 year-old who was skeptical of Princess Jasmine so she asked her a question in Arabic because the fictional setting of Agrabah is ostensibly in the middle east. And Jasmine responded in Arabic! I was completely floored. I cannot recommend this company enough. They are worth every penny.
